Dear Chairmen and Ranking Members:

We write in further regard to matters pertaining to the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act (FISA) and other matters contained in the December 9, 2019 report by Department of Justice (Department) Inspector General Michael Horowitz.

As we described in our letter of February 7, 2020, the Attorney General has determined that it is now in the public interest to release to Congress additional documents and information related to these matters to the extent consistent with national security interests and with the January 7, 2020 order of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court (FISC). We began to provide such documents to you on February 7. A seventh production is enclosed herein, Bates numbered SENATE-FISA2020-000460 to SENATE-FISA2020-000630. This submission contains a Confidential Human Source transcript. The attached production is unclassified in its current format.

Pursuant to longstanding Department policy, the Department has made redactions relating to certain personally identifiable information or to ongoing investigations, enforcement activities, and certain law enforcement operations, methods, or techniques.

Today's submission, along with forthcoming productions of additional documents, is based on extraordinary and unique circumstances, and should not be construed as precedent setting in any regard. The production of these materials does not waive any applicable privilege.

The Honorable Lindsey Graham
The Honorable Dianne Feinstein
The Honorable Richard Burr
The Honorable Mark Warner

CHS: What's up brotha?

CT: Listen, the, like no parking like in the front.

CHS: Okay. Yeah. It's--

CT: Because it's like Halloween and like all the people are out here.

CHS: Yeah and all these bozos.

CT: Some guy actually just took the last spot right now.

CHS: I know, all these bozos out here.

CT: Yeah I know. Conformists, man, that's what I call them.

CHS: [Laughs]

CT: [Chuckles] [UI]

CHS: You know what book I love and adore still to this day?

CT: What?

CHS: You know what book I love and adore to this day?

CT: Which one?

CHS: Euro Centrism I think it's called?

CT: I never saw it, never read it.

CHS: It was in one of [REDACTED] [REDACTED].

CT: Euro Centrism, huh?

CHS: I'll find it, I got it on my bookshelf, I'll give it to you.

CT: [UI] iBooks whatever. Are you, are you here by the way? Do you want me to go inside and wait for you or what do you want me to do?

CT: [UI] I just realized it's Halloween so everybody's out doing their, I don't know what their trick or treating for around here.

CHS: All the businesses have candy.

CT: Do they give 'em candy. Do you guys give them candy at yours?

CHS: Where?

CT: [UI]

CHS: I don't know they're, they're all the way out in [REDACTED].

CT: [UI] where do you work from?

CHS: [REDACTED].

CT: No you don't.

CHS: Yeah. I got a golden job, man.

CT: How do you [REDACTED]?

CHS: Whenever I'm not like, next week I'm going to, uh, [REDACTED].

CT: Yeah?

CHS: And then, no I'm going to [REDACTED], next week.

CT: [Chuckles]

CHS: The week after I'm going to [REDACTED].

CT: What the hell's in [REDACTED]?

CT: Because I, I have a, a [UI] my cousins tenant in this building. He works for [REDACTED]. And he [REDACTED], but he's like an, what does he do? Audit, like [REDACTED] t or something? But he's always just traveling to like different plants and stuff and he mostly [REDACTED]. So what does that mean to [REDACTED], like what do you do?

CHS: I just sit, listen to meetings, do emails.

CT: What?

CHS: It's wonderful.

CT: [Chuckles]

CHS: Don't be jealous.

CT: But why do they [UI].

CHS: [REDACTED]

CT: Yeah, but why do they make [REDACTED] what do you do when you [REDACTED]?

CHS: I just make sure that my team is on their shit, but...for the most part when I used, when I first started I was doing, um, [REDACTED]. So like I did [REDACTED].

CT: What does that mean?

CHS: Like, so say [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] --

CT: [OV] So how did you--

CHS: --in the [REDACTED]

CT: --how did you figure all this stuff?

CHS: They put us through a [REDACTED] [PH], yeah.

CT: Really?

CHS: It's like a pre-college. Like, I'm like, how the hell you guys hire me [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] I don't want to [chuckles] I don't [REDACTED] --

CT: Yeah so [UI].

CHS: --I hate, I hate doing like, remember like, [REDACTED] the [REDACTED] and all that stuff--

CT: Yeah.

CHS: --I hate that shit with a passion.

CT: And that's what you do all day?

CHS: I used to, now I don't. I do [REDACTED]. I don't, I don't even touch [REDACTED] except for my own.

CT: Because I-I hate [REDACTED], I hate [REDACTED]

CHS: Yeah it's annoying.

CT: I'm not savvy at all [UI]. I mean do you have to do like [REDACTED] and all that kind of stuff too?

CHS: Yeah, so we [REDACTED], like, they'll give us a [REDACTED] of like a [REDACTED]. I'll find a way, a [REDACTED]. It's so stupid, I hate it. But it's [REDACTED].

CT: But how do you do it, that seems like tough shit. Yeah I'm not, like [REDACTED] at all. I can give speeches, I can talk to people, I'm really good at that, but in terms of doing like [REDACTED] s [UI].

CHS: Yeah-your m- you're a manipulative motherfucker.

CT: [Chuckles] [UI] I don't think [UI] doing there.

CHS: They got gyros here?

CT: They have everything.

CHS: I'm fucking hungry.

CT: Did you eat already?

CHS: No. I didn't. Why would I come to lunch if I didn't [chuckles]--

CT: [OV] I mean did you have breakfast [UI].

CHS: Uh, I had a waffle.

[REDACTED] so I guess I made waffles.

[Laughter]

CT: [UI] yeah I'm going to get the Poseidon salad [UI].

CHS: You're getting a sa- you're getting a salad?

CT: Yeah, but it's, it's like a seafood salad.

CHS: Oh. [Pause] Poseidon?

CT: Yeah. I've been craving that, it's like really good here.

CHS: Are you, I put, uh, um, baby octopus on the grill. Oh my God that shit's--

CT: Is it good?

CHS: --amazing.

CT: I love octopus. That's my favorite seafood. And scallops.

CHS: I go over down to, uh, [REDACTED] [PH]:

CT: Yeah.

CHS: You know where that is--

CT: Yeah.

CHS: --all the way out, uh, west and I grab the baby, because they always have, fresh baby, um, octopus. Let 'em marinade in lemon and olive oil over night.

CT: You know [REDACTED] [PH] is right here. How far [UI].

CHS: Right, well [REDACTED] is, I got a [REDACTED] right next to my house--

CT: [OV] [UI]

CHS: --yeah, so. [UI]

CT: Yeah man, it is.

CHS: It's burning in your [chuckles]--

CT: It is. It is. What are you going to get?

CHS: I want gyros and fries man. I know it's, uh, I know it's very cliché, but I've been craving a fucking gyro.

CT: [UI] [REDACTED] [UI] gyros [UI].

CHS: Didn't they close [REDACTED]? No what's the place they closed across the street?

CT: [UI]

CHS: Next to that, uh, little brothel they have?

CT: [UI] [REDACTED] [UI].

CHS: That slum motel on [REDACTED].

CT: [UI] café though.

CHS: Dude that transformed.

CT: Isn't [REDACTED] the best café? How cool is the [REDACTED], dude? For me it's like my happy place [UI].

CHS: She was here illegally or legally?

CT: Legally. And [REDACTED] family that are still here and [UI]--

CHS: [OV] Don't they own that big house in [REDACTED] or something?

CT: [UI] the thing I like [UI] the dad was a floater. The dad was a waiter. Do you know how much waiters make at busy [REDACTED] restaurants? A lot. You can make like 400 a night.

CHS: A night?

CT: My [REDACTED] who's like a [UI] from [REDACTED], like probably here illegally [UI] they put him in like [REDACTED] as a waiter--

CHS: [UI] [REDACTED] [PH].

CT: --after a year and a half I'd say, a year, a year and a half. He has rent to pay with her, food, everything, bills, how much does he have saved up do you think? I'd [UI] say a year and a half. I'll give him the year and a half [UI] as a waiter [UI] his only job, cash saved.

CHS: If you're saying $400 a night.

CT: Well not every night. Like, like on a Saturday you get that much...and then don't forget the winter you're slow too, so you gotta...

CHS: I don't know, I think if he was being frugal and saved, he maybe saved $20,000.

CT: $20,000.

CT: No.

CHS: [OV] Oh I was going say--

CT: [UI] as a waiter.

CHS: Just save.

CT: You need no education, you can start at 18. You could literally [UI] what am I talking about [UI].

CHS: Yeah but if you're a nobody here, yeah.

CT: [UI]

CHS: Yeah but if you're a nobody here, you don't have credit you don't have any of this other shit, what are you going to do?

CT: What do you do?

CHS: Yeah you can go buy a car cash, you can go buy a house cash, but--

CT: [Laughs] Well no you just rent. Okay let's say you're a citizen forget, forget the [UI] you're a citizen at 16 I don't want to go to college and waste my, or I want to drop out [UI] because you don't need an education you do that [UI].

CHS: Well you need to know how to read. [Chuckles]

CT: Well yeah. You would make more money, I swear, than probably 90% of the millennials. That shocked me, man. Millennials [UI].

CHS: Well a lot of millennials are lazy, they rely on technology, they're, they're relying on their education to get them further in life, but they don't have the--

CT: [OV] But that [UI].

CHS: --they don't have like work eth-ethic like we--

CT: They don't have a work ethic you're absolutely right, they don't have that drive.

UF: [OV] Hi.

CT: Hey how's it going, hon?

UF: Everything good. Have you decided?

CHS: Yeah [UI].

CT: Do you want an appetizer or anything?

CHS: No. Go straight to it, I don't want to, I-I saved myself on some calories. I'll do a, a gyro sandwich.

UF: Gyro sandwich.

CHS: Hold the tomatoes. Extra Tzatziki.

UF: I have to charge you for extra Tzatziki.

CHS: That's fine.

UF: No tomato.

CHS: No tomatoes.

CT: I want the Poseidon salad.

UF: Anything else?

CHS: You doing, uh, water?

CT: Oh I'll get a drink, you want a drink?

CHS: Let's grab a drink at the casino.

CT: Alright that's fine. We'll just have this.

CT: So, so that's, seriously like, I don't, it's not even a millennial problem, but if I'm not motivated like I can't, I can't get up and do something. It's nuts. So I really need to [UI] like autistic when it comes to that shit. If I'm motivated then I'm like into it and I'm, I feel like I'm being productive, I can do some 20 hours a day.

CHS: What, what's, what...

CT: [OV] Like my, what I'm doing now. Like I love it and I, over like the last six years [UI] like all this political shit so it gets me up and like going. If I wasn't doing that then it's like--

CHS: Like what about it drives you?

CT: It's interesting man, you get to meet cool people man, and like, uh, like uh politicians and leaders of the world and you really get to find out what's happening in the world.

CHS: You're, you're not even, what are you [REDACTED], no you're [REDACTED]--

CT: [REDACTED].

CHS: --[REDACTED]. When you [REDACTED]?

CT: Next [REDACTED]

CHS: Next [REDACTED], oh. [REDACTED]--

CT: [UI] hell's a year.

CHS: [UI] you go through your [REDACTED], you're like oh my God what am I doing with my life is there, and then I was like, oh wait I got a corporate job, I'm cool. [Laughs]

CT: [UI] starts projects in like their [REDACTED], [REDACTED] some people are in their [REDACTED] age is-is literally just a number. This isn't like, 1950 where you get the job at Ford all your life. People are really doing different things now.

CHS: Yeah like--

CT: [UI]

CHS: --I want money now. I want to [UI] like I don't want to be a 75 year old driving around a Lamborghini; I want to be [REDACTED] driving around that Lamborghini. I don't want to--

CT: [UI] it's the key.

CHS: [UI] how [UI] give me an idea how to make money. I'm right, I'm right behind you.

CT: Well, the [UI] man, like, see I don't like the so-called safe job. You're always going to be middle class.

CHS: Always. And I know that.

CT: Yeah. No, I'm not talking about you, I'm talking about anybody.

CHS: Yeah.

CT: You know and that's why I always try to stay away from it and it, I've done like risky things you know that some have hit, some haven't. A lot of consulting [UI] a lot of cash and then some that aren't that much because I want to break through that like nine to five shit. You know, because I guess that's like what our generation is about. And like you would always talk to me about opening up like your own business, so I'm like that kind of stuff is bad, man. You franchise like a business--

CHS: I was thinking the other day, I'm like a lot of Arabs have, uh--

CT: Nine to five is--

CHS: [OV] --barbershops.

CT: --going to be just sad, you're going to be, you're going to be like comfortable you know?

SECRET//NOFORN

CHS: Think about a barbershop.

CT: What about them?

CHS: Okay, $20 average per person that comes in.

CT: Mm-hmm.

CHS: They get a lining, they get a sh- they--

CT: Is that what it is?

CHS: Roughly.

CT: Like in this area it's 20, but in--

CHS: Yeah, plus tip. So maybe say they're 18 dollars or 20 dollars plus tip.

CT: I'd say 20 with tip.

CHS: And most of these guys are renting out their booths for, I don't know, 500 a week or something.

CT: Are you serious?

CHS: I don't know.

CT: They rent out their booth?

CHS: I don't know. I-I don't know how m- maybe it's a month? They, they rent out the chair and all that stuff.

CT: Is that what they do?

CHS: For some people.

CT: Oh really?

CHS: Some people that own it they, so I'm just calculating. I'm like $20 per haircut, you can get 2 done in an hour, that's 40 bucks, okay you're there for 10 hours. That's $400 bucks, right?

CT: Yeah. My, my haircut guy who's right down the street, Turkish guy--

CHS: And if they turn around quick, if they do four in an hour, h-how long does it take?

SECRET//NOFORN

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

CT: Lets say, let's say you could do three in an hour on average you can, that's 60 bucks an hour.

CHS: Six hundred dollars a day, 600 a day. Cash. I don't want to become a barber, I ain't cutting nobodys hair, I'd probably slice half the moles I have on my head, but like okay 600 dollars a day times a month and say they take 2 days off. Or these Arabs they work like dogs, they like, they go and send money back home, they have families, they have mothers, they have grand [UI].

CT: The, the good thing about you is because like you do have like that steady income [UI] you probably have more [UI] than a lot of people have on hand.

CHS: I have zero cash flow.

CT: What do you mean zero cash flow.

CHS: Like my money goes to my mortgage, bills, credit cards, done.

CT: How much is your mortgage?

CHS: [REDACTED]

CT: No it's not.

CHS: Yeah it is. [REDACTED]?

CT: What do you have a house?

CHS: I just refinanced it. It used to be [REDACTED] a month.

CT: I know because it's historically low.

CHS: I've got [REDACTED]. Now some of it pays for itself.

CT: What do you mean? [REDACTED]?

CHS: [REDACTED].

CT: [UI]

CHS: So I got [REDACTED]

CT: How'd you, how'd you spring a [REDACTED]?

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

Recording: CCR_001.wav & CCR_002.wav

CHS: I got a FHA 203k loan so I bought [REDACTED], put $150,000 in renovations all within this loan and--

CT: What do you mean? The banks loan?

CHS: Yeah. They gave, so you put 3.5 % down--

CT: Yeah

CHS: --including, so the--

CT: What's this called? FHA?

CHS: FHA 203k. So it's like putting money, um, from that, taking money out from your loan--

CT: So you're telling me if I go into a dilapidated house--

CHS: Uh-huh.

CT: I could go to the bank and ask for that loan and they'll say, okay we'll gift you a loan.

CHS: Yeah. You can buy houses left and right in this, especially in this area, for 150,000 in shit condition.

CT: Well why would a bank, [UI] do you have to have cash up front or only that 3%.

CHS: Three and a half percent.

CT: That's nothing.

CHS: I know, it's nothing and it's a great investment right now. Like I'm, I hope to buy another [REDACTED] by next year. I want my credit cards cut down in half and then the banks will start looking at me like oh my [REDACTED] making money, I have my credit cards are stable--

CT: Do you have like a lot of credit card debt or like?

CHS: So much, because, like half the renovations that I did, I did myself. Like I concreted the backyard I just like, did--

CT: How did you pay that with credit card though?

CHS: You find companies that take credit cards.

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

Recording: CCR_001.wav & CCR_002.wav

CT: Like a union, you had union guys?

CHS: No, just find regular companies.

CT: And they take credit card like that?

CHS: Yeah.

CT: [UI] my families interested--

CHS: [OV] The renovation guys--

CT: --[UI] we just give them cash like a lot of these guys--

CHS: [UI]

CT: --come and do [UI].

CHS: Oh, no. No those are, those guys will be 50% of how much, someone with a, who would charge with a credit card, you know.

CT: Yeah. So you would pay double that, that's what I'm saying. That's how, because what I did is, my mom, [REDACTED], you know and I wanted to help my mom so the money that I gave my mom, [REDACTED] over the last like [REDACTED] years, all my money went into that, but I'm like cool with my mother, you get it?

CHS: Yeah.

CT: Because she obviously was taking care of things on my debt--

CHS: [UI] I wish I had a, [REDACTED].

CT: But, but you're, but you're [REDACTED] doesn't he? Or [UI].

CHS: No. My dad's a low-life scum he ain't got shit. He's at least been--

CT: [UI] business was?

CHS: He never [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] He [REDACTED] [REDACTED] now he's back here, [REDACTED] wants to get out, thinks it's [REDACTED] [PH].

CT: [UI] No.

CHS: Yeah. All of them [REDACTED] [REDACTED] I don't know what, one of my [REDACTED] is some shady motherfucker trying to pull [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] it over here or something.

CT: [UI] so what [UI] your dad is he still [UI].

CHS: They have a [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. Their [REDACTED] is not good. They're in a slow area. I told--

CT: He, it-it's his, it's his or the uncles?

CHS: Well he borrowed money from everybody so about 10 people own it. [Chuckles]

CT: [UI] [REDACTED] is a very big money.

CHS: But he's not making any money. He barely has like, I mean, considering maybe there's [REDACTED] that live in that area, [REDACTED] that they used to go to, they don't, they're not going to the [REDACTED]. They have a relationship with somebody at a [REDACTED] they go there. You have a couple of old [REDACTED] people, [REDACTED] people coming in because they're [UI] intrigued.

CT: [OV] What area is this?

CHS: [REDACTED] You know where, uh, [REDACTED] [PH] is?

CT: I know [REDACTED] t that's [UI].

CHS: You know [REDACTED] ?

CT: Yeah.

CHS: Like half a mile from there.

CT: That's not that slow of an area. It's a lot of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] down there.

CHS: [OV] They're down, they're down by [REDACTED] and--

CT: That's where [REDACTED] is, isn't it?

CHS: No, [REDACTED] is, uh, is on [REDACTED] [PH] [UI].

CT: Well, well, what's the, there's like an [REDACTED] right there, what's it called? I used to go there sometimes. It's not [REDACTED] or something? You know it's, it's a big one. It's a [REDACTED], like [REDACTED].

CHS: Might be [REDACTED].

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

Recording: CCR_001.wav & CCR_002.wav

CT: Is it [REDACTED]?

CHS: Yeah.

CT: Yeah.

CHS: But...

CT: So they, uh, [REDACTED] is surviving there.

CHS: But they are on [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] there is not enough foot traffic there, no one's, they-they closed, there was a gas station on the corner, that closed down so you already have people not, you know...

CT: [UI] reopen [UI].

CHS: [REDACTED], and, uh, [REDACTED], there's some business there because they have that huge plaza, but...

CT: Dude if that is what you're telling me about the houses [UI] a very [UI] maybe we should sit down with my mother and [UI] me and you [UI] I'm on the business [UI].

CHS: I, yeah.

CT: Like she, like this is her business and I mean I don't know if she, but let me just understand this model, because usually how we do it is we pay 20% down--

CHS: Right, that's your standard. Standard loans.

CT: Yeah. But and the, but the house will still renovations, most of them. But we put 20% [UI].

CHS: Yeah, so so--

CT: I mean it's not like dilapidated, but you know, we put in probably 100 [UI].

CHS: The thing is with FHA loans, you can get one FHA loan your entire life.

CT: [UI]

CHS: Once you get one, that's it. Once you get, if you get an FHA 203k loan and you refinance out of it, into a standard loan, you don't have to put 20% back down on to whatever you already own--

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

Recording: CCR_001.wav & CCR_002.wav

CT: [OV] [UI]

CHS: So you still have that property, but you can, once you're out of a 203k, it's a renovation loan, you can go and get another FHA 203k loan. You can't get a, you can't have two open at the same time, you know, so it's a process, but--

CT: And anybody could go to the bank today and say I want a FHA loan and they'll say okay?

CHS: If you're a first time buyer, you have good credit his- you have a good enough credit history--

CT: What was your FICO score at the time, do you remember? Do they look at FICO or credit?

CHS: Credit. Um--

CT: But FICO I thought was [UI].

CHS: It's almost the same thing. Uh--

CT: It is isn't it?

CHS: Yeah.

CT: Because I don't know even what my credit, I know my FICO scores I don't know...

CHS: What's your FICO?

CT: Seven fifty-three.

CHS: Yeah, you're credit's probably around there. Seven twenty, seven something like that. I think the top of your credit's what 8-820? Something?

CT: That's the highest [UI].

CHS: Or that's that highest on FICO?

CT: Uh, yeah FICO is higher.

CHS: I'm, [UI] might be the same thing [UI].

CT: [UI] okay so they're probably similar.

CHS: Uh-huh.

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

CT: So you needed to show that though?

CHS: Yeah, you need to show that you're responsible with your money--

CT: [UI] do you have a school debt?

CHS: No.

CT: You have no tuition loan.

CHS: None.

CT: So how'd you get out of that?

CHS: What do you mean how did I get out of that?

CT: Did you have scholarships or like grants?

CHS: Yeah.

CT: Oh you did?

CHS: That's the only reason I went to [REDACTED] I mean I got into [REDACTED], I wanted to go to, uh, the [UI] [REDACTED], but--

CT: Oh so you [UI]--

CHS: [OV] Never made it.

CT: --got a lot of scholarships.

CHS: Yeah. But I wish [REDACTED] offered me half the scholarships that [REDACTED] did. So, I was just pissed off at my parents and I'm like you low-life Democrats you can't fucking afford shit.

CT: [UI] if you had gone there you would have been like how much in debt, probably [REDACTED]?

CHS: Oh yeah easily. And then I would have been working as a, a [REDACTED]--

CT: [Chuckles] Free--

CHS: --uh, [REDACTED] What are you doing, right?

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

CT: [Laughs] [REDACTED]. Well I, I made my cash when I was working some oil business stuff. That's when I made my cash was in Israel.

CHS: How the hell are you making cash doing that?

CT: [UI] [REDACTED] company giving me a lot of grants and contracts.

CHS: To do what?

CT: To lobby for them in Washington.

CHS: That's it?

CT: Yeah [UI].

CHS: So like what would you do to lobby?

CT: [UI] so how do you think I got--

CHS: [OV] Oh that was very quick. Thank you.

CT: [UI]

CHS: Can I get some ketchup please?

UF: Sure.

CT: How do you think [UI] [REDACTED] by being this, um, [REDACTED], you know?

CHS: Yeah that article is hilarious. [Chuckles]

CT: [UI] laughed too when I saw that. [UI] quick side note on that whole thing [UI] I had no idea that I even had that stupidity on my [UI] you just put like lies and stuff to make yourself, you know?

CHS: They look at your LinkedIn profile?

CT: Because I was like, I was like thinking about back then like maybe it was [UI] apply for like an MBA so I thought that'd be like the thing.

CHS: You're LinkedIn profile--

CT: Yeah.

CHS: --is what they got all that shit from? [Chuckles]

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

CT: Yeah, obviously, I mean I never talk to them. It's not like I was saying, hey, yeah guys what's up? [Chuckles]

CHS: I knew you bullshitted half your way through it.

CT: [Chuckles]

CHS: This greasy paper. Put that paper on there.

CT: That looks good, man.

CHS: You want some?

CT: No thanks.

CHS: Take, take some.

CT: [UI] good.

CHS: You don't want to get consti-constipated?

CT: [UI] chicken breast yesterday it was a bit huge so I'm like--

CHS: All stuffed with hormones weren't they? [Chuckles]

CT: Probably man.

CHS: So couple weeks away and then what are you going to do with your life?

CT: It all depends...if he wins or if he loses. If he wins I work for him, if not--

CHS: You think he's going to hire you?

CT: He is going to hire me.

CHS: Well then you've got your nine to five.

CT: Hmm. [UI].

CHS: You have stability for four years. [Chuckles]

CT: No, but that's like a whole new generation it's like, you've got these gigs and one smaller one leads into a bigger ones and bigger ones. And that's like the interesting part about, but the thing is about me is like I told you I took all my savings and I [REDACTED]. I have cash now, rents

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

Recording: CCR_001.wav & CCR_002.wav

so I'm not, like panicked, you get what I'm saying? Because of that so I kind of like will use that, but--

CHS: It's always nice to have security. You're backed up one way or another.

CT: But real estate [UI].

CHS: If you don't want to take risks the way you are and you're going freelance, you gotta have some sort of backup.

CT: Well yeah, I mean that's why, I mean, I, uh, I put into this and you know we got a, a four flat there and then two of the families are mine he rents from us.

CHS: Very nice.

CT: [UI] wake up with cash. [Chuckles] I have like--

CHS: How much is your mortgage on that?

CT: It's paid.

CHS: It's paid? So all the money that you're getting from there...

CT: Well now.

CHS: So you have steady income coming in, so you don't have to worry, you could do whatever you, [UI] you can sit on your ass--

CT: [OV] Well I mean--

CHS: --and do nothing.

CT: What? [REDACTED] a month. That's nice, but I want, I mean it's just to be safe, you know.

CHS: [REDACTED] a month I'm g- I'd take that and run.

CT: [UI] you said your mortgage alone is [REDACTED]

CHS: Yeah. But how much money I make versus mortgage, taxes is another story that's coming up. I'm terrified of my taxes.

CT: What do you mean?

CHS: They're [REDACTED], but they're doubling next year.

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

Recording: CCR_001.wav & CCR_002.wav

CT: Why are they doubling?

CHS: I guess I got a notification saying that they're going to double.

CT: Oh that's the problem with you because you were, [UI] like a regular [UI] when I was doing these consulting things [UI] get, um, a contractor [REDACTED] cash. Nuts. And whenever I, I'd pay because I would have a 1099, I would do my own taxes, I paid like [REDACTED] dollars in tax.

CHS: Oh so you pulled a Trump. [Chuckles]

CT: But, but that's what a 1099 was the better thing. You can't, because they take it out right away, know what I'm saying? Well then when I worked with [REDACTED] it was a legit thing and then they would take the taxes out immediately so I couldn't do it on myself which was horrible, they would take like, a lot out.

CHS: [UI] this [REDACTED] with my ketchup.

[Rustling]

CT: [UI]

CHS: I'm about to go up there and get some.

[Laughter]

CHS: How am I going to eat my fries with no ketchup?

[Rustling]

CHS: Do you guys have ketchup by chance?

UF: Yeah. It's [UI].

CHS: Perfect thank you so much.

UM: [UI] thank you.

CHS: I think our waitress went out for cigarette break or something.

CT: [Chuckles] —She did. Um...

CHS: You want some fries?

CT: [UI] order [UI] so when you don't have a 1099 you have the [UI].

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

Recording: CCR_001.wav & CCR_002.wav

CHS: Yeah.

CT: [UI] So they take that right away

CHS: Yeah, but I mean you still have to pay your taxes at the end of the year.

CT: Yeah, but I could say this was an expense, this was an ex- you get it? You can put anything you want as an expense and [UI] shit. I could say my dry cleaning was an expense, which I always did. My flights to Europe and my flights to the Middle East all--

CHS: On reimbursed?

CT: Yeah.

CHS: Kind of expenses.

CT: Yeah, even if let's say they weren't reimbursed for me, but let's just say they were, I still [UI] get it? So I, I actually preferred a 1099 to W2, the W2 they took out right away everything. Under [REDACTED] that's what they had me [UI] during [REDACTED] or Trump it's the same thing, they just take it out. I got my last pay stub last week from the campaign.

CHS: Your last?

CT: Well yeah, the campaign's over in 10 days.

CHS: So you're not working with them?

CT: Meaning like I'm working but I don't have the cash anymore.

CHS: [Sighs]

CT: The thing is like I've done a lot of cool, interesting governments and all these people [UI] but I don't know how to monetize those connections [UI].

CHS: What do you mean?

CT: Like I know a lot of Ambassadors a lot of Presidents.

CHS: So, like, for example, how did you get, um, uh, Trump to meet with Sisi [PH]? How did that connection happen?

CT: Well that's, that's where I'm trying to tell, okay so the whole thing with like, uh, the Egyptians is very interesting...because it goes back to like my work like in the lobby stuff, I was doing in DC [UI] like Cyprus is really the developed on gas and oil and all that stuff at the same time and, um, and then Egypt government was overthrown, you know, and Sisi came into power. And they ended up hating, you know, Turkey because Turkey is supporting the Muslim Brotherhood and they were looking for alternative partners like Cyprus, Greece, like Cyprus--

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

Recording: CCR_001.wav & CCR_002.wav

CHS: Turkey was supporting the...Muslim Brotherhood?

CT: [OV] Muslim Brother-yeah of course, and they still do. And then the Greek and the Cypriot governments like, we were working with them at the time in Washington. And they said you guys should be the first people to go and talk to Sisi, you know? Because while everybody else was afraid they [UI] became very close with him so they were invited to like his inauguration, like the President, they became very chummy, his [UI] so then all of a sudden like in all this gas and like you have to figure out how to like monetize it and then they started discussing between Egypt and Cyprus and Egypt and Greece and Egypt and Israel how like Egypt becomes like this hub and I was like responsible for a lot of that, I, I went to Israel, speak in a lot of conferences of why Egypt is like a primary location like for this, all this activity to go through so anyway the Egyptians [UI] went to Greece like in May and I had meetings there with their Government officials [UI] like on behalf of the campaign. And then I'm like sitting there talking to like the head of like the Middle East department of the foreign affairs and he's like [CT], I'm going to put you in touch with the Egyptian Ambassador because the Egyptian Embassy is right next door. And I'm like, yeah. He literally gets on his phone and starts speaking in Arabic and he's like oh they want to see you at 2:00. I [UI] I'm not kidding, I can't even like [UI] differently than I'm telling you. Go to the Egyptian Embassy, talking, you know, about Sisi [UI] Trump [UI] you know, Egypt's a very important country, you know, we want to meet with him and all this stuff. He can [UI] I was in Greece like four weeks for over the summer, you know we would, I go to the hotels I can have coffee with the guys and that so we get really chummy you know, because you got to build trust with these people [UI] especially with the Egyptians and then they thought I was Arabic and all this funny shit so they had like a connection with [UI] you know and then--

CHS: You called them all [REDACTED] [PH]? [Chuckles]

CT: Hey [UI] should actually [UI] do you know how [UI] actually be talking to somebody who looks like you. Like, or like has your similar culture instead of like John Wayne or Ron Smith--

CHS: [Chuckles]

CT: --coming in from, you know, Washington.

CHS: But you fit in, in Israel real good, too.

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

Recording: CCR_001.wav & CCR_002.wav

CT: And yeah there too, exact same thing. I fit in more with those people than anybody in Washington. You know? The Israelis the same exact thing they were [UI] you can imagine. It's nuts over there. Like crazy, you know, like Prime Ministers like right-hand man's a friend of... you know, like that. So then anyway he's like you got to get in touch with our guys in DC. I go to DC then like in June-July started meeting, you know, Egyptian Ambassador, go out to lunch then dinner, you know, talking and shit and then all of a sudden I get an email like right before UN week in New York--

CHS: Mm-hmm.

CT: Crossfire Typhoon you must set up a meeting with Sisi [UI] Trump, Sisi wants to meet with Trump this is undercover, no one knows like, you know, it's very politically risky for him [UI] especially.

CHS: Yeah, Trump meeting with Sisi. [Laughs]

CT: [UI] no it's risky for Sisi.

CHS: Oh.

CT: Because you know he's like his Government is--

CHS: So so.

CT: --unstable and like you know the whole Muslim ban and all that stuff, remember? So then, yeah of course I send him to [UI] he wants me [UI] so it's a lot of just like behind the scenes like networking, you know, just [UI] coffee man.

CHS: Are you a legitimate believer that Trumps going to win? You're a believer? I got one of his hats at a, at a wedding last weekend. [Laughs]

CT: I believe in the guy and I'm not bullshitting you from last summer, from last summer--

CHS: Why?

CT: Forget, forget the rhetoric, right? Think of the substance now. We're always a country.

CHS: Those liberals are asking for another table.

CT: [UI] not really.

CHS: [Laughs]

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

Recording: CCR_001.wav & CCR_002.wav

CT: [UI] when I heard him first speak last summer on MSNBC he spoke at the heart of the issues and not just bullshit. Like Rubio and a lot of American exceptionalism and all this stupidity. That means jack shit when you're $100,000 in debt, alright? That means literally shit to me. And I'm not in debt. I'm very lucky [UI] managing when 95% of this millennialist think. And I'll send you the interview. So I was watching and he's like talking about trade deals, this is in June 2015 then, you know? Like his first national interview of when he decided to run, the day after you know, his announcement. He's talking about trade deals, bringing infrastructure back, you know, manufacturing becau- and and it was hitting me because even though I was working in DC at the time, you know I had family here, some are blue collar some are white collar and they would always tell me, Crossfire Typhoon, not everybody could be a doctor or a lawyer or and not everybody could sell insurance to one another.

CHS: Yeah.

CT: Somebody has to make something with their hands.

[Clinking sound]

CT: Or we're not going to have an economy anymore and when he started talking about that, I'm like that's the real America speaking to me. That's the real America. Not the guy sit-sitting in think tanks or lobbyist and you know these guys like just basically like selling stocks and know nothing. The real America needs to like build, you know, you got to build car [UI] build the roads, you got to build infrastructure, you do need to bring back jobs that were taken away from China and India and Mexico. You know, you got to revamp the military. You do need to renegotiate like our alliances with countries around the world because we, we are $19 trillion in debt so that all made 100% sense to me and I'm an educated person so let alone like to the rest of the people and the reason I think he dominated the way he did was because he was talking about the issues, he wasn't talking about what some advisor was telling him to, like zingers and, you know, like Jeb Bush and Marco Rubio and these guys who their advisors basically just rehearsed them. You know? And at the second, secondly he's a billionaire. He doesn't need to do this shit. Jeb Bush needed to do it, Marco Rubio need, because these are career politicians. Trump, man, his-his-his brand was at an all time high before he jumped into this race.

CHS: That's why his casino is closed down in Atlantic City?

CT: No, his brand. Like his brand. Like the Trump brand was, I don't care what anybody says, look some businesses fail, others succeed you know the game.

CHS: Yeah.

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

Recording: CCR_001.wav & CCR_002.wav

CT: You know, this, he maybe failed there, but he succeeded everywhere. No one's perfect man, everybody's had--

CHS: Of course, of course no one's perfect.

CT: Yeah everybody's had losses, you know and, and he probably tried jumping in [UI] business he didn't know nothing about. Casino wasn't his background, real estate is. That's another thing I was [UI] don't [UI] shit you don't know nothing about because you're going to get burned. I tried doing that with the stock market, lost 40,000 one day.

CHS: Fuck. Fuck the stock market.

CT: Forty thousand I lost. Because that wasn't my business you know?

CHS: Was, uh, was, uh, Trump, who's was it Russia that proposed this or was it the Trump campaign that proposes like having, uh, some monitors come from--

CT: [OV] Russia.

CHS: --Russia to America to watch our election and watch our polls?

CT: Yeah. Another thing, I don't know where you stand between Clinton and Trump or [UI] but--

CHS: Psh. Look at me, I'm, look at, look at me. I'm as liberal as they can be.

CT: No.

CHS: The only republican [UI].

CT: Trump-Trump is socially liberal. You have to understand he's very socially liberal, he's a New York Republican man, very pro gay rights. When have you ever seen a Republican put on the platform of the RNC a gay rights? Never. [REDACTED] [PH] you know the guy, [REDACTED] he's gay [UI] big supporter spoke at the RNC, you know, he's very pro, you know all that stuff. He's actually made that main stream Republican [UI] you know? I mean you can't be more socially liberal as a Republican than him. You know, I'm socially liberal, you know, and I view him as a very moderate social guy, you know? While Clinton on the other hand I see her as like too extreme on one side, you know, like almost like threatening to people who have like poor religious beliefs, and I don't like that. Like she's too extreme for me on the left, you know what I mean?

CHS: Yeah.

CT: I mean okay the rhetoric may have [UI]--

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

CHS: To me like, um, um, I-[stammers] I'm a conservative, domestic conservative and a liberal internationalist, like I don't give a shit what happens around the world, but I'm very, very keen on what happens here.

CT: Well that's why you should really love him I mean because he's actually looking out for what's happening here.

CHS: Oh I don't know.

UF: Everything okay?

CHS: Yeah, um--

UF: Coffee, dessert or ready for check?

CT: The check?

CHS: Yeah, check, I'll just give you my card, don't even wa- yeah, don't waste, don't waste any trees by printing--

UF: [Chuckles]

CHS: --receipts.

CT: Let me get this [UI].

CHS: No no no no no. [REDACTED] [PH].

CT: So--

CHS: That shirt is so distracting?

UF: That's really [UI].

CHS: How do you wash it, is it dry clean only?

UF: [UI] all of it.

CT: It's little.

CHS: Must get static in the, in the dryer. [Coughs]

CT: I mean when you're in an Manhattan [UI] you kind of feel like a redneck conservative guy.

CHS: Yeah, I mean I get that, but--

CT: Let's be realistic.

CHS: But what's progressive and what's not, you know?

CT: What is it? You tell me. Now [REDACTED] who I worked for before was too far to the right on everything.

UF: Thank you.

CHS: Yeah, thank you.

CT: Thanks a lot CHS. And that's why I was a bit turned off with that campaign. It was like too redneck for me. You know what I mean? Well [UI]--

CHS: Too redneck? [Laughs]

CT: It was too redneck. Nothing wrong with those people, like God bless them, you know, but is it, was it, I didn't believe in serving the core values of the campaign. [UI] like I said, pro gay rights, pro [UI] he's like everything just [UI].

CHS: [OV] But all these things that he's said in the past like--

CT: [UI] the only problem is clouded in the rhetoric.

CHS: Yeah, I can, I can see that.

CT: You gotta see clear of the clouds [UI]. That's all.

CHS: There are some things that he can say though that just like really turn me off on like--

CT: Like what?

CHS: The way he says things, the way he like approaches the, the rural America. The way he says things to them like--

CT: What do you mean?

CHS: --gets them going and like their hearts racing.

CT: [UI]

CHS: Like building a fence? Any hick--

CT: A wall.

CHS: --any, or building a wall, sorry. A wall, because a fence ain't enough.
[Chuckling] Like an electric fence is [UI] [laughing] but seriously? Like the way he says it.

CT: Let me put it this way. We live in [REDACTED], we're [REDACTED], alright? If you look at countries that close borders like Greece for example, you know how fucked up Greece is becoming because of refugees right now? And migrants and all these people coming in? I [REDACTED], I [REDACTED], [REDACTED], all these like [REDACTED]. There's obviously some, you know, uh, concern in [REDACTED] for the illegal immigration or else they wouldn't be up in arms about it. There aren't, there is a big drug epidemic coming in fr- not even, forget Mexico, like from Central America, South America that transits into Mexico. So how are you going to stop all this kind of stuff, you know? You do need to... [REDACTED] [PH] is [UI] legal immigrants here, my grandparents, why should other people skip ahead of them. They had to go through the process, we're all immigrants here. [REDACTED] and went through the process, so why should illegals that are sneaking through becoming citizens, taking jobs and then--

CHS: My, my [REDACTED]

CT: Didn't?

CHS: No, [REDACTED] and they should have [REDACTED] [Chuckles]

CT: What do you mean?

CHS: Uh, [REDACTED].

CT: Well [REDACTED] he probably doesn't [REDACTED].

CHS: That what the, didn't the [REDACTED]

CT: Speaking of that, I want to hear your thoughts on that because I've been to Israel four times. I talk to them about any issue you could possibly imagine. The one issue that I don't ever discuss with them is the [REDACTED] issue. I just tell them, guys, I don't know like too much about that so I don't want to get involved. What's going on there? Do you follow what's going on there or no? .

CHS: I don't follow currently, I used to. And you can present any sort of situation that will [REDACTED], but no one is going to have their full heart in that. You

CT: Have you been to [REDACTED] proper or [UI].

CHS: Yeah, I've been to [REDACTED], I've been to [REDACTED], I've been to [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. It is, to me it's the sunshine...like the sunshine state. It's like semi [REDACTED], semi [REDACTED] like there's a lot of [REDACTED]. Like, I don't know, like, you buy real estate in [REDACTED] super cheap you just want to make sure like you're connected to another city and things like that. And all these, you know, they're slowly building the infrastructure for [REDACTED] but by the time they do that 20-
30 years from now, there will be no use to, to [REDACTED]

CT: I had a dream last night, I'm not kidding you, where I imagined it was nuts I had this dream, we have a [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] --

CHS: [REDACTED] [PH].

CT: Some [REDACTED], majority stay though because there's like a million already, but then so [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] [UI].

CHS: Yeah, [REDACTED]

CT: Wouldn't that make sense? Considering that, yes, they're like [REDACTED] countries
[UI]--

CHS: [OV] Yes and no.

CT: --because what are you going to do [UI] because you know you're not [UI].

CHS: Yes and no because like the [REDACTED], like look at [REDACTED] [REDACTED], that is like, I honestly have never been to such a [REDACTED] place, but so [REDACTED] because like, I went over to the [REDACTED] --

CT: [OV] [UI]

CHS: --you know I, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] [REDACTED] like, that was cool and then r- like--

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

Recording: CCR_001.wav & CCR_002.wav

CT: Is it, apparently I heard it's hard to even get into the [REDACTED].

CHS: No. And to top it all off and I, I asked an [REDACTED] if I can have her gun to take a picture with because she had one of them big rifles, she gave me her gun. Right by the [REDACTED]. Like she didn't know, like, you know like she didn't know who I was, she didn't care, she just knew that I was I was by the [REDACTED] and [REDACTED].

CT: I was dating an [REDACTED] for a couple months.

CHS: They're hot. They're mixed. But the same thing with the [REDACTED] too like they're, they're trusting. I asked them can I take a picture with your, your [REDACTED] They gave me their [REDACTED] and I took a picture. It was great.

CT: [UI] [REDACTED]?

CHS: [REDACTED] got a lot worse since I don't use it enough because [REDACTED] [REDACTED] ...during remember when I went off to [REDACTED]? Right before that [REDACTED].

CT: Really? Why did you go to [REDACTED]

CHS: [REDACTED] [REDACTED].

CT: Yeah.

[Background conversation]

CHS: So the [REDACTED] I was like, so [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] --

CT: No.

CHS: No. They're like [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. I'm like, okay. They sound like fucked up [REDACTED] people don't they? Thank you. [Laughs]

CT: [UI] go there.

CHS: You [REDACTED]. I'm like you are not [REDACTED] [Chuckles]

CT: [UI] am I crazy for thinking that?

CHS: But, so they wouldn't let me in. I like I tried my hardest to get in through there and they're like [REDACTED] [REDACTED], [REDACTED] I'm like I want to get in. Their [REDACTED] was just, the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] is just completely empty. Like you could hear [REDACTED].

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

Recording: CCR_001.wav & CCR_002.wav

CT: Oh wait the [REDACTED]?

CHS: [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. It was completely empty. You would think that there's like a bunch of [REDACTED], but [REDACTED] is just denying everyone saying no we're not letting anybody in. So I went, I went [REDACTED] [REDACTED] all the way to [REDACTED]--

CT: What do you mean went [REDACTED]?

CHS: I went, I had to go, I went down to, uh, [REDACTED] [PH] and I went down all the way to [REDACTED], got a taxi all the way to [REDACTED], went to the [REDACTED] embassy there and got my life signed away. They're like if anything happens to you [UI]--

CT: Why did you go to the embassy?

CHS: Because you have to get like [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. They weren't going to not approve you, you're just telling them that you're going, but you're [REDACTED] for [REDACTED]. So I basically signed my life away, I was like okay if I die, I die. At the time I was [REDACTED] and I was like [REDACTED] [UI].

CT: And people still should be [UI].

CHS: And no, I mean, you could be passionate for, for something you could be protestor, black lives matter? What are they doing, what are they changing in government? No one's doing nothing.

CT: [UI] it's about rhetoric and stupidity. Action, not rhetoric, you know. These guys are idiots.

CHS: Then I went over, I went [REDACTED] and they said no we're not letting anybody, we're not letting [REDACTED] [REDACTED] I'm like you're not letting any [REDACTED]

CT: [UI]

CHS: I was working with, uh, [REDACTED] [PH] which is the [REDACTED] of the [REDACTED] and I had a contact in there and they're like, yeah if you can get across [REDACTED] we're more than welcome to have you, uh, to have you.

CT: Was this in [REDACTED]?

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

Recording: CCR_001.wav & CCR_002.wav

CHS: [REDACTED] [REDACTED]? [REDACTED] and then, um, from there I went back to [REDACTED] another [REDACTED] [REDACTED] in the car with some strange [REDACTED] taxi guy, who was pretty cool. He drove pretty fast and got me [UI]--

CT: What do you mean [REDACTED]?

CHS: [REDACTED] from, uh, the [REDACTED].

CT: You were with him [REDACTED]?

CHS: [OV] And then I went to the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] I told them I was from the [REDACTED], they didn't ask me for any ID, they didn't ask me for anything.

CT: I don't believe that.

CHS: They gave me a [REDACTED] and I [REDACTED].

CT: I don't believe that. Are you serious?

CHS: [OV] Believe it or not, yeah. I'm slick in the [REDACTED]. [Chuckles]

CT: [UI] went to [REDACTED].

CHS: [REDACTED] is the most beautiful place on earth that I've ever been, like, I still like dream of like that sunset there it was just gorgeous, but then it was a bunch of [REDACTED]. Like there was some places that were intact, but looked like everyone, like, I don't know, as much as they were under duress and stress they still went about their lives and everything like the culture there was like, everyone's super helpful, it's not like the [REDACTED]. [REDACTED], yeah everyone is nice and cool, but like over there everyone is like family. Like making sure that everyone's okay that--

CT: Where's your, where's your [REDACTED]?

CHS: They're, [REDACTED]. Um, bunch of scum, but[chuckles]

CT: [UI] people?

CHS: Uh, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] they're nice, but [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. And like he had really no, I don't know, that, [REDACTED] that they ever had, but like to me that's, that's very passionate that like he did that, [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. Uh, but like later on like he abused all of his kids, so all of his kids abused all of their kids even i-it trickled down all the way to my father, like he's been abusive he's like, my Grandfather was crazy he made them like punch bricks until their fist bled because they had nothing to do. Let's go to the casino, I want to win some money.

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

Recording: CCR_001.wav & CCR_002.wav

CT: [UI]...go to the bathroom?

CHS: [UI] Is it a one person bathroom?

CT: Uh...[UI]

CHS: It's probably going to take an hour to get out of this place.

[Rustling]

CT: [UI] here?

CHS: Not bad.

CT: [UI]

CHS: What is it, what it's like a gyro company?

CT: Almost.

CHS: This, my chest keeps on busting open.

CT: [UI]

[Door creaks]

[Bathroom noises]

CHS: So they're just a bunch of fucking crazy people [UI].

CT: [UI] our families are [UI] what do you think, 50 on 17?

CHS: Fifty? Uh...

CT: [UI] on 17. [Chuckles]

CHS: Two thousand dollars on 17.

CT: What's the most you would ever put on one hand down?

CHS: If I, how much money do I have that I'm comfortable with?

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

Recording: CCR_001.wav & CCR_002.wav

CT: [UI] what you're comfortable with?

CHS: What I'm comfortable with right now? Maybe a 100 bucks.

CT: For one hand?

CHS: Yeah.

CT: The most I ever saw somebody play in one-one hand was the equivalent of 3,000 dollars.

CHS: Psh.

CT: And he lost it.

CHS: You like blackjack? [Sighs]

CT: I like roulette the most.

CHS: We'll play a little blackjack to get warmed up. And when, when we feel that, uh, 17 coming, boom.

[Hand washing sounds]

CT: Shh..[Chuckles]

CHS: I remember I hated going to the casino with you because you would always jinx it. [Chuckles]

CT: [Laughs] No [UI].

CHS: [Clears throat]

[Coughing sounds]

CT: I just love the casino it relaxes me.

CHS: It relaxes you? Selling money down and getting a surprise at the end relaxes you?

CT: You know I always win [UI].

CHS: Yeah oh I think I was in [REDACTED] not too long ago.

CT: [UI]

CHS: I put down [REDACTED] on a 17 I hit.

SECRET//NOFORN

SECRET//NOFORN

CT: Did you? Cool [UI] two weeks away from like [UI].

CHS: When was this?

CT: Uh, right before I worked with [REDACTED] last December I was, you know, with a girl, you know, and [UI] everything and, uh--

CHS: What was her name?

CT: [REDACTED] [PH].

CHS: Mm-hmm. You said she, she moved here or something?

CT: No [UI].

CHS: And your mom said she didn't, uh, she said if you guys were going to date or whatever you do it on your own.

CT: Yeah yeah.

CHS: That's hard, I mean--

CT: [OV] I know it, I know like your natural instinct would be like nobody cares what [UI] but at the end of the day you don't want to be isolated by then.

CHS: Yeah.

CT: You get what I'm saying? And I'm quite close to my, we're not that many, but I'm quite close to them, you know?

CHS: Yeah, I mean, family is family if you, like my relationship to my family is very distant. I'm very close to my mom's side of the family so if they told me not to date anybody--

CT: [OV] Yeah [UI].

CHS: --I would not do it.

CT: Yeah, that's what I mean.

CHS: They hated my [REDACTED] [Chuckles]

CT: You have to explain that to me because that's nuts. What happened exactly? And don't just say it was no, like the sex just [UI] that's not enough to [REDACTED] [UI].

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

Recording: CCR_001.wav & CCR_002.wav

CHS: [OV] No it really was.

CT: [UI]

CHS: Like, so, we did things the right way and I'm a very sexual person. So like my, my I'm up [UI] I like to have sex a lot.

CT: Uh-huh.

CHS: And especially if I'm gone for two or three days if I come home, so once Sunday night I cleaned the house, everything's spic and span, laundry is done--

[Car horn sounds]

CHS: --dishes done, yeah, everything's super clean.

CT: How big is your place? What is it a one bedroom, two [UI]?

CHS: Two bedrooms. And then, I like, I come home or I leave Monday morning, I come home Thursday night dishes are piled high, laundry is not done, piled high--

CT: Are you serious?

CHS: Yeah, I come home and the house is not clean and you're not dropping my pants? Like fuck you. Like so the dishes became an issue, the laundry became an issue.

CT: If you're cleaning on Sunday [UI]--

CHS: Spic and span.

CT: ---[UI] pick it up in one day?

CHS: No, I it was clean on Sunday. Monday I left for work, Thursday night I come home it's all mess.

CT: [UI] mess.

CHS: Like it upkeep come on you got to do fucking something.

CT: Do you want me to get you a coffee or anything?

CHS: Nah. Do you want something?

CT: No. If you want [UI] they have them [UI].

CHS: That's shit coffee there.

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

Recording: CCR_001.wav & CCR_002.wav

[Background voices and laughter]

CHS: You want to stop at Starbucks? But so like the dishes became an issue the, just the cleanliness became a big issue because I wasn't having sex. I could look the other way if I'm like, if I'm sexually satisfied that's not going to bother me, we'll hire a cleaning person, I'd look the other way, but if you're not doing anything and you're not, we're not intimate then get out of my life.

CT: [UI] the cum stain.

CHS: [Chuckles] [UI] the cum stain.

CT: [Laughs]

CHS: She no clean the cum stain.

CT: [Laughing] You just, [UI].

[Leaf blower sounds]

CT: [Laughing] [UI]

CHS: That was the, why did that father like [UI]?

CT: [UI]

CHS: Why did he break the PlayStation?

CT: [UI]

CHS: [Sneezing] That was hilarious.

CT: [Laughs] [UI] yeah why do you break it?

CHS: I found, I found free parking right here. So it's pay to park this way.

CT: This is my gym right here.

CHS: This is your gym?

CT: Uh-huh.

CHS: You're fancy.

CT: I don't know. Like this was 79, 80 bucks a month.

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

CHS: See I found free parking.

[Beeping sounds]

CHS: It says pay this way, it doesn't no parking or no pay this way.

[Beeping sounds]

CT: [Laughing] You don't, you don't clean no cum stain.

CHS: Don't clean up any cum stain.

CT: [Laughs]

CHS: [UI]

CT: [Coughs] Oh my God, that's funny.

[Beeping sounds]

CT: Oh man. Weren't you working at a, oh man you got this [UI] huh? I like this song.

[Music playing]

CT: They play this at [REDACTED] sometimes. This one was [UI].

CHS: Oh they've got a great band [UI].

CT: What did, would your partners at like history of like sexual relations affect your impression of them or no? Would you just think the past is the past?

CHS: Twenty minutes.

CT: You're dating somebody right now, or you get married to somebody right now, they tell you I've been with, sexually active with 20 guys does that bother you or no?

CHS: That's five percent of how many women I've slept with. So [laughs] to me.

CT: Well no, but I'm just [UI] does it affect you [UI].

CHS: If it, if it's still tight it's fine with me.

CT: Yeah.

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

Recording: CCR_001.wav & CCR_002.wav

CHS: If she comes off as slutty I'm not going to fucking bring that around my [UI] like, that's not me. You know? I want someone who, who not necessarily super fucking experienced, but I want someone who's, you know...

CT: No.

CHS: Down to do different things that, you know you don't have to fucking teach them.

CT: Was your [REDACTED] a virgin?

CHS: No, she slept with one person beforehand.

CT: Oh okay.

CHS: That bothered me.

CT: It bothered you?

CHS: It did because it was just that one person and like the, like I don't know, they had a very close relationship and she's still close with his parents, but like it, it bothered me in the sense that like, okay she's just slept with one person maybe she's not all that, why did he break up with her like? You know?

CT: You see so it does bother you. See? It does.

CHS: No, not that she slept with him.

CT: Well the closeness man.

CHS: No, well yeah the closeness bothered me because I was like why did he break up with her? Was he not getting it either?

[Beeping sounds]

CT: Oh, didn't you ever ask? Like what happened?

CHS: She moved to [REDACTED], he didn't want to move to [REDACTED], blah blah blah. I never dug into it, I don't give a shit.

CT: So do you think it's a good idea to dig into somebody's past like that before you settle in next time, or you just think it's better [UI] because I'm still at like a crossroads of that, I don't know what's better.

CHS: [UI] to me like, in my short term relationships just knowing that like, I don't know, it's, it's a trust [UI] like how are you with [REDACTED], like, [REDACTED] looks at you

SECRET//NOFORN

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

Recording: CCR_001.wav & CCR_002.wav

like you are and you can do better and life is good and [REDACTED] and like you don't have to focus all of your energy on the past because [REDACTED] makes everything new, like, your relationship--

CT: [OV] Yeah that's true.

CHS: --with him, you're relationship with somebody else, it can be the same way just don't focus in on the past. It's very important to know the past, but at the same time it's also very important to look at the future if this person is secure and you're secure with this person then that person should not matter to you. I'm secure with [REDACTED] so ever, everything else and everyone else doesn't matter to me.
I kind of want coffee now.

CT: [Laughs] Yeah.

CHS: Do you want coffee?

CT: Yeah let's get one. Is it a drive through one or?

CHS: Oh this is right here.

CT: Oh okay. Yeah man I-I really just want like a good, pure girl man. Not necessarily [UI] somebody who's definitely thinking in the present and her past has not affected her. The reason I mention like that you go with somebody who has had like a very intimate past usually always does affect them in the present.

CHS: If it's a very sticky past, if it's not then it shouldn't.

[Car sounds]

[Beeping sounds]

CT: Yeah.

CHS: [REDACTED] she gave, uh, she borrowed a guy some money he still owes her that money.

CT: How much?

CHS: Three grand.

CT: Three grand. Where'd she find three grand to give?

CHS: She, she save, like her parents paid for her rent while she was living up here.
They paid for everything, her parents are, they're just, they're very well off so she

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

Recording: CCR_001.wav & CCR_002.wav

had it very good. Any money she made she paid for her utilities and then the rest of it was hers so she saved up quite a bit of money the past four years.

CT: [UI]

[Car honking sounds]

CHS: She was.

CT: [UI]

CHS: I don't know.

CT: [UI]

CHS: I think it's the same area as you.

CT: Is it?

CHS: What is it? Yeah. [REDACTED], I don't know.

UF: [UI] thank you.

CT: [UI]

CHS: Refill.

CT: [UI] going back to [REDACTED] on Friday want come with?

CHS: On Friday?

CT: [Laughs]

CHS: I, I actually would. I'm not, um...

CT: I'm going to book my ticket.

CHS: When are we going to Russia?

CT: That I definitely want to go to in, uh, I was thinking about the winter.

CHS: This winter?

CT: I actually want to go when it's cold. That's when it looks charming.

CHS: Where do you want to go, St. Petersburg or Moscow?

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

Recording: CCR_001.wav & CCR_002.wav

CT: [UI] first. I don't, I don't hear good things about Moscow.

CHS: I hear, so I don't know this for certain--

CT: [OV] St. Petersburg I've heard the most amazing things [UI] and now it's such a great time to go because the Ruble is like at an all time low with their currency. Like you could literally--

CHS: I heard that, uh, if you don't carry around your passport with you all the time and you get stopped by the police they take your passport, but no the hotels take your passport when you check in, but when you ask, when you go to if a police stop, policeman stops you and they, you don't have your passport on you they take you in for questioning or something? This is what I heard from some of my friends.

CT: Really?

CHS: [Clears throat]

CT: Why would they stop you [UI] unless your [UI] did they stop your friends?

CHS: No. Well [UI] stories that I heard.

CT: [UI] well just carry your passport. [Chuckles]

[Beeping sounds]

CHS: No, but the hotel takes it when you check in.

CT: Just ask for it back. And they just keep it the whole time?

CHS: I think so. I think that's how they work.

CT: [UI] I mean I did [UI].

CHS: What's all this [UI].

UF: Okay.

UF: And a glass of ice water.

[Beeping sounds]

CHS: We'll make it back by, by six yeah? I don't want to spend more than an hour, hour and a half there. You doing anything tonight? Taking it easy.

SECRET//NOFORN

CT: [OV] No plans. No plans. How about you?

CHS: I'm going to stay in tonight, tomorrow I'm going to have people over for the [REDACTED] game if you want to come by?

CT: Are you?

CHS: Yeah I actually got a stop and pick up a [REDACTED] from Best Buy on [UI] --

CT: Alright.

CHS: --on our way.

CT: [UI] that guy [UI] that guys [UI].

CHS: How old is he?

CT: He's [REDACTED] going on [REDACTED]

CHS: Fuck. If I was at like, he must be making some good money doing this shit.

CT: Well he's not.

CHS: [UI] why he's doing it? [UI] all he knows?

CT: That's what, he's an accountant by training. I'm like dude what are you doing? Like [UI] he's like, he's like, he's out literally out four days a week. I can't, I go out maybe once every three weeks.

CHS: [UI] the same with me. I can't do [UI] going out [UI] shit.

CT: Yesterday I was beat I watched [REDACTED] at like 10:00 and I [UI] really tired. Stayed in my, just watched YouTube [UI].

[Background conversation]

CT: Woke up around 7:00.

CHS: Watching all those Japanese videos?

CT: That made, dude that actually made my morning.

UF: Hi.

CT: Hi, how's it going?

UF: Good.

CT: Can I have a, a grande coffee?

UF: Sure.

CT: [UI]

CHS: I'll do a, a venti refill, um, with maybe like five or six ice cubes in there.

UF: Five or six ice cubes okay. You want me to just put those together?

CT: Yeah no that's fine.

CHS: Hang on, the refill is free.

UF: [UI] it's fifty-five cents.

CHS: Not when you're a gold member.

UF: [UI]

CT: [Laughs]

CHS: See it disappears. Look, see--

UF: Yeah it does.

CHS: --two forty-nine now, you see that?

UF: [UI]

CHS: [UI] how did you get that? It's like [UI] you got to, you got to [UI].

CT: Is it magic?

CHS: Yeah.

CT: It's magic. [Laughs]

CHS: You got to, you got to be [UI].

UF: [OV] [UI] your coffee?

CT: Uh, a little bit.

CHS: You got to be in the know.

CT: What'd you [UI]?

CHS: Is she still around? No.

CT: [UI] isn't she a little awkward?

CHS: She was awkward but she looked like a good girl.

CT: She was a good [UI].

CHS: Yeah. You fuck that up and then you fucked that [UI] in the asshole.

CT: Hmm?

CHS: And then you fucked that in the asshole.

CT: No I didn't.

CHS: Uh, no. You told me you did.

[Background sounds]

CT: I wanted to.

CHS: [UI], ah, no. You told me you did.

CT: [UI] doing it and I stopped [UI].

UF: I'm sorry I think there might be seven in there.

CHS: That's fine.

[Beeping noises]

CHS: [Laughs] Don't apologize, thank you.

CHS: I cream everything when I cream it comes to me.

CT: [Laughs]

CHS: Monica Lewinsky's, uh, uh, dry cleaner told her that.

CT: [UI]

CHS: [Chuckles] So when she's like, uh, okay I can't get rid of this dress. [Chuckles]

CT: What's [REDACTED] up to, man? Is he still at the grocery store?

CHS: Yeah he's pissed at you bro.

CT: Why?

CHS: He is, he is livid?

CT: What's he livid about?

CHS: What is he livid about? He said you guys were best friends for ten years and then you disappeared on him. You disappeared on everybody. Even [REDACTED] [PH] was asking about you.

CT: [UI] [REDACTED] act like she knows [UI] once in my life. [Chuckles]

CHS: [Chuckles]

CT: [UI] I'm like do I know, am [UI] or what?

CHS: Eh, you know we hung out more than just once?

CT: Did we?

CHS: Yeah. Because she was dating [REDACTED] for awhile, you don't remember that?

[Car horn sounds]

CT: What is she doing now?

CHS: She's a lawyer.

CT: Where?

CHS: No idea. I think she's just finishing her MCATs she's so she's passed them and she's good on that level, but--

CT: MCAT?

CHS: Or not MCATs, LSATs.

CT: [UI]

CHS: What are, what happens when you, the bar. She passed bar, there you go.

CT: Oh [UI].

CHS: One of those fucking tests.

CT: [UI]

CHS: See how uneducated I am?

[Music playing]

CT: So, so what's [REDACTED] up to?

CHS: I think he's still working at the gro- [laughs]

CT: [Laughs]

CHS: And it's not funny.

CT: It is very [UI].

CHS: Maybe he's going to take over, maybe he's going to take over the grocery store, I'm very proud of him, he's got great work ethic.

CT: Yeah, but you know, I don't, I don't know. I'm mean there's something about doing your own thing instead of depending on daddy's nuts.

CHS: Well maybe he's taking it over. Maybe daddy promised him that, hey this is going to be yours.

CT: Yeah but daddy, like, you know, and you really see a man's character like when they do something on their own, you know, when they struggle [UI] I could have been a little bitch like that too [UI]--

[Background sounds]

CT: --I'm serious, but you know I did something that I made an impact that I felt I'll leave some sort of little mark on [UI] history done right. Not fucking single [UI] dead he's going to put me in a selling tomatoes. You know? I think that's why I stopped talking to him. I think every time I'd go out with him he would always like talk about like let's do a business, and like let's do ideas and the he was just like bullshitting like all the time, I'm like alright. Then shit.

CHS: Dude I want, I, to me, I love, I'd love to make like, I want to see a million dollars in my life and I want to keep that million dollars. I want to live off the interest off of five million dollars, you know, like--

CT: [UI] that loan that you got, man. The [REDACTED].

[Laughter]

CT: So I should call the [REDACTED]

[Laughter]

CHS: R2D2.

[Laughter]

CT: R2D-- [Laughs] That's the R2D2.

CHS: [Whistles]

CT: Did you ask for an R2D2.

CHS: [Whistles]

CT: Did your parents help you out at all or no?

CHS: Negative.

CT: Negative?

CHS: I am a self made motherfucker.

CT: That's a good thing, man. I really, that's amazing thing. That, don't you feel proud of this shit?

CHS: In ways sometimes I'm, I'm, I don't know, like in high school my cousin and I we, we made quite a bit of money in high school like I, I hustled candy at school, like, I'd go wake up at 6:00 in the morning go, go to Costco buy, uh, a box of candy, I don't know with 50, 60 pieces of candy in there. No it was 100 pieces of candy for 33 dollars, so they're 33 cents each. I did, doing the math and every day I'd sell out the whole box. So I'd make a dollar each. So I'd make about 67, almost 70 bucks a day just doing that. And like, I bought myself nice shit because I didn't have rent, I lived at home, my mom fed me, like but I went out to like on the weekends I went out to nice restaurants, my cousin and I we [UI].

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

Recording: CCR_001.wav & CCR_002.wav

CT: [UI] which cousin?

CHS: [REDACTED] [PH].

CT: [REDACTED]

CHS: We went to the [REDACTED].

CT: [UI]

CHS: Yeah. And like at the end of the day, like, our-our friends were looking at us and thought our parents were rich.

CT: [UI] are [REDACTED] parents rich?

CHS: No, none of, we were, [REDACTED] parents are still on welfare and I think my mom still is. Like we're, we came from like we weren't fed with a-a silver or gold spoon, we were filled with, fed with, uh, plastic spork. You know, like, it's--

CT: Yeah, but [REDACTED] was telling me that he was making like 100,000 a year doing [REDACTED] and shit.

CHS: Mmm?

CT: Is that true?

CHS: We got into the [REDACTED] business and that's, we were making very good money.

CT: So why'd you guys stop?

CHS: People stop, like, so after the financial collapse, like, people stopped and companies cut back on a lot of things. They were like, and you know, our bread and butter were like people taking our [REDACTED] on their companies dime for like their kids sporting events or prom and like that was good bread and butter and the companies started, their companies started pulling back and saying hey, you can't, unless this is a business expense you cannot use, uh, you cannot use this company or anything like that, like so our bread and butter just went out the window, uh, a lot of our drivers went off to bigger companies that they were at consistent with work they'd have two or three pickups to go into [REDACTED] in the morning and then they could just go back to sleep after the last drop off, so like it wasn't worth the headache, I don't know. I mean 100,000 a year is fucking great, but it went like this, there's, we're on fucking vacations we, we had fucking like red l- during the week we didn't go to fucking Red Lobster on Friday or Saturday, and I know it's bullshit now, like I would not go eat at Red Lobster.

CT: [Laughs]

CHS: But like in High School if you're eating Red Lobster two or three times a week and you're at fucking have a lot, like you're, you're doing good. Like you're doing good [UI] you know?

CT: [UI] over it lobster man.

CHS: The, the, those biscuits, man.

CT: Those biscuits, huh?

CHS: Oh.

CT: How good are those biscuits, man?

CHS: Oh. I buy them from Costco now, the box of biscuits, I make them at home.

CT: You make them at home?

CHS: Oh yeah.

CT: I saw that because I was at Costco a couple days ago and I saw that they served, are they hard to make?

CHS: No, they're so good, they're so easy.

CT: What do you put, just water or milk?

CHS: Water and then you got to buy s- a good cheddar cheese. I'm, like if I were you invest in a very nice slice of cheddar cheese, go to Whole Foods get a very nice block of--

CT: Is it really fattening though?

CHS: Of course.

CT: It must be, huh?

CHS: Bread and cheese.

SECRET//NOFORN

CT: [UI]

CHS: Ah, what do you expect?

CT: They are too good those things, aren't they?

CHS: Oh yeah.

CT: Red Lobster, yeah for like 21 bucks you can eat like a kid and get a lobster tail. You know the casino we're going to now is all you can eat crab legs for 40 bucks.

CHS: When?

CT: You didn't know? Wait which casino are we going to?

CHS: [REDACTED].

CT: Oh [REDACTED]? You don't do go to the one in [REDACTED]?

CHS: Oh hell no.

CT: [Laughs] No.

CHS: First of all if I'm putting on, if I'm putting more than a 100 dollars on, on the table, and I [REDACTED], I'm going to like bite all my nails off.

CT: I forgot that you [REDACTED] there.

CHS: Yeah. If, if [REDACTED] stopped allowing people to [REDACTED] there, I don't think they'd have any business or I don't know, maybe they would, I don't know.

[Background noises]

CT: [UI]

CHS: I went there twice when I was at--

CT: I don't like it either, I do like [REDACTED].

CHS: And, and I like the odds better and like I'm a, a [UI] entertainer member [UI] whenever I go to Vegas I get a free room and all this other shit so I don't [UI].

CT: [UI]

CHS: I don't want to go, the [REDACTED] don't have any sister casinos in Vegas or Atlantic City. I go to Atlantic City or Vegas I can stay for free [UI].

SECRET//NOFORN

CT: [UI] that guy he dropped probably 1.2 million dollars over his life, gambling, not at the casino, but at horse racing.

CHS: Fuck.

CT: At the off track betting bullshit.

CHS: Off track?

CT: Or not off track, but what's the one where you go to like--

CHS: Like [REDACTED] and?

CT: I don't know, like the [REDACTED] [UI].

CHS: Oh yeah, yeah, yeah. That's off track.

CT: Is it off track?

CHS: Yeah that shit, I have never been in there and God forbid I never will because, like--

CT: He lost about one million in there and probably 200,000 [UI].

CHS: That, that like you look at that place and there's like bums on the outside, like--

CT: So what do people do in there?

CHS: You can, I think you can bet like 25 cents a dollar and like there's seriously like bums that are off--

CT: [Chuckles]

CHS: --the, like the, seriously. They have their, they park their, uh, grocery carts with all their shit on the side. That place is nasty. Oh fuck me.

CT: Yeah so he is, so then his wife left him and now he's all fucked up. He's making 20,000 a month in the 80s and the 90s up until about 2002.

CHS: [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] there's so much money--

CT: Did you just hear what I said, dude? Twenty thousand in the 80s, that's like 40,000 [UI].

CHS: Yeah [UI] just imagine.

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

CT: Cash. And he pays [UI] workers.

CHS: He could have fucking bought several property, like in the 80s if you bought property in [REDACTED] you are a millionaire. You are a millionaire today.

CT: Because this city is going to be, it's going to boom like New York.

CHS: Yeah--

CT: This has more potential than New York. I think New York [UI].

CHS: Big time. New York is over, is done, no one's going to if you, if they raise the rent in New York everyone is going to fucking move.

CT: [UI] London, London's over two now.

CHS: Yeah.

CT: It is.

CHS: Shit's way too fucking expensive.

CT: I-I went to London like two, three weeks ago--

CHS: [OV] I don't know how the hell you could afford to live there.

CT: --and I just felt like the air has been taken out of that place.

CHS: Psh.

CT: The air has just been taken out of that city. And I love London, that's my favorite city in the world, but when I went there I just did not have a good time.

CHS: The m- like money there is key. If you don't have it, you're nothing.

CT: Well you can't make money there because they tax your 60% and [UI] and anything over 40,000 pounds a year.

CHS: [UI] fuck.

CT: Did you hear what I said dude? Sixty percent, that means your making 100,000 pounds--

CHS: That's more like social democracy, I mean is healthcare free though?

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

Recording: CCR_001.wav & CCR_002.wav

CT: Yeah.

CHS: Okay. So I mean they, you've got that.

CT: But you're making 100,000 pounds on [UI]--

CHS: Sixty percent.

CT: [UI]

CHS: So you're making 40,000.

CT: And you know what, I was living in an amazing area right? Zone one.

CHS: You lived in zone one?

CT: Yeah.

CHS: Where the fuck you get that money?

CT: [UI]

CHS: Zone one. [Chuckles]

CT: Yeah but--

CHS: Dude, my [REDACTED]. [Laughs]

CT: [UI] no I was [UI] right next to Hyde Park, the Queens [UI].

CHS: Fuck you, how much money--

CT: [OV] Yeah, but, but hold on--

CHS: --you fucking making over there?

CT: But hold on, I was making good money when I was there.

CHS: You have like 10 flat mates?

CT: No, I was making 3,500 pounds there. Now listen, my rent there every month was 1,000 pounds. It was technically a hostel but it wasn't meaning this, I lived in probably a 50 square foot room, only a sink in there.

CHS: You're shitting me.

SECRET//NOFORN

CHS: I would throw up.

CT: Listen, listen. Communal, like bathrooms, like on the floor--

CHS: Ugh.

CT: --and a kitchen like, where everybody, where like they would feed like the people living in the building. But my backyard was Hyde Park and I was right across from the Queensway, you know Queensway and Bayswater?

CHS: Yeah.

CT: Right across the street from Bayswater and Queensway [UI] station. I was paying 1,000 a month for a, a 40 square foot room with a twin bed, no bathroom of my own, no kitchen of my own, and that's what I was paying. Can you believe that?

CHS: That's fucked up [UI].

CT: That's the equivalent of 1,500 dollars.

CHS: That's why you didn't invite me to go and stay with you [UI].

CT: When did you, um, when [UI] this was like--

CHS: No the last time I saw you in [REDACTED]

CT: No, I was living there last year.

CHS: Oh, oh that's right.

CT: When you saw me in [REDACTED] I think I was a [REDACTED]

CHS: Yeah.

CT: Oh the, yeah I was living in [UI] too.

CHS: [Sighs] Was [REDACTED], [REDACTED] was out there with you, no?

CT: I think so. How nice is [REDACTED] though, isn't it?

CHS: It's nice, but I mean, uh, to me I get bored with it really quickly.

CT: What's your favorite city?

CHS: Really?

CT: I like [REDACTED]

CHS: Oh, you are a [UI]. That's where all the FOBs are. I, I like--

CT: FOBs?

CHS: I like the city. I like, I like [REDACTED] because of the city feel and...

CT: Because I was in [REDACTED] for two summers ago--

CHS: [UI]

CT: That was in [REDACTED] like four summers ago and I compared them and [REDACTED] was just more relaxing. How was [REDACTED] Why did you go there? You go there a lot.

CHS: I went there six times.

CT: Yeah why do you go there so much?

CHS: It's like the food. It's every-everyone every time someone, especially someone I'm dating they like [UI] they'll ask me like so why have you been to, why have you been to [REDACTED] so many times?

CT: Really.

CHS: That's how I'm like, duh, sex tourism and cocaine. [Chuckles]

CT: Is it sex tourism?

CHS: I mean you can, if you want it, you can find it very easy, I mean people are like on the prowl looking for, for customers because there's, there's [UI].

CT: [UI] disgusting [UI].

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

CHS: No there's some, no there's some very pretty women. There's some people who just like, they can't afford to do anything else and some people just want to come up. You know I'm very--

CT: Well I, when I was in [REDACTED] I felt there was a lot of prostitutes there.

CHS: Oh yeah there's prostitutes everywhere dude, but I mean if you're not looking for it, the, it will present itself to you at least once or twice while you're out there, I mean, the fir- I went to a strip club in [REDACTED] and like they, they laid cocaine on one of the strippers asses I-

CT: [UI]

CHS: --they did. And I was like, um, no, I'm not going to fucking snort anything up my nose I have a hard time with marijuana, like, I tried marijuana like twice in my life, I took two puffs, the first time I fell asleep and the other time I got dizzy and I just felt like shit.

CT: Yeah.

CHS: Like I can't stand like--

CT: They were actually doing cocaine and shit?

CHS: Yeah, they laid it on the stripper's ass, the stripper bent right in front of me and like I was going to take it, I'm like no, no, no, no, no. I gave them like 40 dollars and I was like, no get away.

CT: What?

CHS: In no way in the, like I guess if I ever wanted to try cocaine I'm going to go and try in [REDACTED] probably not off a strippers ass, but I'm--

CT: Is it expensive there?

CHS: I'm sure it's cheap, I've never asked.

CT: No, not, not coke, I mean like living there, like hotels?

CHS: I mean, [UI] is up and coming and [REDACTED] is very reasonable. I'd compare it to like, if you were middle class in [REDACTED], you'd be wealthy over there.

CT: Well [UI] country and ones a [REDACTED] in America [UI].

CHS: [UI]

CHS: I, I like [REDACTED] man.

CT: Do you? I've never been, but I've heard the worst things about [REDACTED]. I've never heard a good thing about [REDACTED] in my life.

CHS: People are pretentious and stuck up, but you know what if you, if there's so much there, you're crowd is who you associate yourself with, I mean I went to church out there twice and everyone out there that I went to church with like, I'm friends with some of them, like they're very nice people I can hang out with them any time, they're very cool, down-to-earth people like [UI] I don't know.

CT: How is it living there though?

CHS: I lived in [REDACTED].

CT: Yeah?

CHS: It was beautiful, it's like--

CT: So what's [REDACTED] vibe down there?

CHS: What do you mean?

CT: Like what's [REDACTED] vibe, like what, what is this city's like, character? Like--

CHS: I think it's however you want.

CT: --you just said [REDACTED] is pretentious and that kind of stuff.

CHS: And the, the general, uh, I think characteristic of this city is--

CT: What's up with the train?

CHS: Hustle bustle and I mean peop- even though people are in a rush all the time out here living in the city--

CT: [OV] Really?

CHS: --but I feel like people will stop and take time for you.

CT: Yeah I feel that way too. Am I missing something, what is up with all this traffic?
I've never seen in my life--

CHS: [OV] Yeah it's--

CT: --seen traffic on [REDACTED].

CHS: What?

CT: Never. What is this?

CHS: Um, like the [REDACTED] game is back that way. The [REDACTED] aren't playing today obviously.

CT: Some idiot paid [REDACTED] at the [REDACTED] game yesterday.

CHS: Hmm.

CT: I just enjoyed the, the view from my house yesterday--

CHS: Yeah?

CT: --watching the game. Why would I pay 1,000 or 2,000 to watch a game there?

CHS: Well seats and--

CT: My, my cousins husbands the director of food and beverage at [REDACTED]

CHS: No shit?

CT: Yeah [UI].

CHS: What's my, uh, what's [REDACTED] uh, cousins name? He just got engaged too. His girlfriend's name is [REDACTED] [PH].

CT: Greek?

CHS: No.

CT: [REDACTED] that's a Greek name.

CHS: She's [REDACTED]

CT: Oh.

[Laughter]

CHS: So what the fuck, what the fuck you think is all up with all this, uh, this rigging and all this shit [UI].

CT: I believe it. There's a lot of hidden horses behind Clinton, man.

CHS: I'm talking about fucking Trump. [Laughs]

CT: Well that's what he's trying to say because there are a lot of hidden horses behind Clinton who want to win the election for her.

CHS: But why?

CT: Well because she's sold out to Soro's and all like these, uh, multi-billionaire like, unsavory secretive society like people, you know, and that's like well known. WikiLeaks released that shit. You know when George Soro--

CHS: Uh.

CHS: What, what do you feel about WikiLeaks?

CT: I have no opinion on it it's [UI].

CHS: Nothing?

CT: No.

CHS: To me I'm like, what do you think they should do to, uh, what's his name?

CT: I think as long as the information that's released doesn't harm anybody physically, for example, I didn't like how they released military secrets, but I think releasing information on a person who's running for President, I agree with it 100% because the people deserve to know who they're about to elect to govern this country and their livelihoods, you know? What do you think?

CHS: I don't know. I, but I do you, I think it might be a technical weapon from one party to another though to, you know?

CT: What do you mean?

CHS: Like I feel like Trumps only focus on Clinton is her email scandal bullshit, like--

CT: Yeah, but you, it's an email scandal because there's a lot of info with her about her, it's not just like oh she's sending emails about [UI] talking about like her connections and, you know, who she associates with that who's giving money to the campaign.

CHS: [UI]

CT: And what she's saying to Goldman Sachs behind the closed doors, you know? Don't you think people deserve to know what the hell is going on?

CHS: Sure, but at the same time, like, I don't know. Everyone's vulnerable. Everyone, like, no matter what you do, no matter like what you say, you're like your fucking emails like if you're on Gmail like--

CT: Anybody's--

CHS: Yeah.

CT: --emails suscep-susceptible to being hacked then. My, my phone was hacked--

CHS: [OV] But also--

CT: --by the Israelis.

CHS: --think about it this way, like you think so--

CT: My phone was hacked by the- it was, 100%. Not 99, 100%.

CHS: Why don't you go get a new phone?

CT: I am probably gonna get a new one.

CHS: Oh you're probably going to go get one.

CT: I want to get me a new iPhone 7.

CHS: [Chuckles]

CT: But then I have to change my number and all that [UI].

CHS: Why you got to change your number?

CT: Because I assume like that's--

CHS: No, you can keep your number with the, whatever carrier you go to.

CT: But do they hack the phone number or the phone. That's what I don't know. No one knows.

CHS: I have, no one knows.

CT: And I don't want to change my phone because that would just be a pain in the ass.

CHS: No, I mean, i-if they hacked your phone, your phone now has a bug, but if you get a new phone I'm sure it's all clear.

CT: [UI]

CHS: I think your, if your number's being hacked it's just probably being recorded. What do you think?

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

Recording: CCR_001.wav & CCR_002.wav

CT: [UI] at the end of the day that Snowden came out and said that everybody's under surveillance, so what the hell.

CHS: Well look at fucking London, you like London, like everywhere you go that like I, I feel secure knowing that everything that I do and everything that's being done around me is recorded, but at the same time, like, I don't know. It's just kind of weird.

CT: Some people will say that, you know, they, the fear, their right's being suspended, you know?

CHS: Yeah.

CT: Because of that like you have to like strike the right balance if you say between freedom and security. [Chuckles] Because...

CHS: How do you feel about the, the Democratic National Convention shit hack?

CT: It's the same thing as Clintons email basically. Well I mean look at it, if I was a Democrat, which I'm not, and I was--

CHS: God forbid you be a Democrat, [Crossfire Typhoon], oh my God.

CT: --well because I believe in self reliance, you know? And I believe in the American dream and I believe that the government shouldn't, unless you absolutely need it, I don't think the government should pat you on the head and say you're a good boy and go on and we're going to take care of you. That's just...like [REDACTED] for example, right? Guy's growing up in the 60s in [REDACTED], right? Single family household, illiterate mother, black, what were the chances of him doing what he had done?

CHS: Nothing.

CT: But because his mother decided to have him get educated, work, and not be dependent on government, you know, subsidies for the rest of his life, look what he did for himself and that for me is the American dream and if he can do it, anybody can do it in this country, there's no excuses. I agree that food stamps and welfare should be for people who absolutely need it, absolutely no doubt. And healthcare should be provided for people who absolutely can't afford it, I agree 100% with that. However, in this country, man, this was built on like innovation and self reliance and picking yourself up by the bootstraps and getting shit done. The more government interferes in our lives I feel, the less, you know motivated we become as like innovators, entrepreneurs and just, you know--

CHS: Not necessarily. I mean if you're doing something wrong or something bad, I mean I feel like--

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

Recording: CCR_001.wav & CCR_002.wav

CT: What do you mean, what bad or wrong? Like a crime?

CHS: Yeah. I mean, yeah. If, why do you think the government surveils anybody? Like look at London, why do you think they're, they're putting any sort of surveillance on the street, so their CCTV is like outrageous. Every angle that you could ever think of like with anything is being recorded.

CT: Yeah.

CHS: So if you're doing something, if you're not doing anything wrong then you have nothing to worry about.

CT: No, I'm not talking about that, I'm talking about like taxes and stuff like that, like the government interfering and how like how we should [UI].

CHS: If you're doing something wrong--

CT: [Laughs]

CHS: --with your taxes, then the government should fucking interfere, I'm just saying. Like--

CT: [OV] Alright but, but think of it this way though, alright? What's stopping a government let's say ten years from now, maybe even five years from now, okay? The precedent has been set, right? Where you can eavesdrop on phone calls and emails, right?

CHS: Right, but if s- if, if [REDACTED] were talking to somebody on the phone and that person that dropped the word terrorist or something on that phone or said something like--

CT: [OV] Okay hold on.

CHS: --Al Qaida related--

CT: [UI]

CHS: --if that triggered then a, a recording and--

CT: But you know what, but you know they used to say that like your home was your castle.

CT: You're phone is now your castle, because all your private information is basically on your phone today. So what's stopping then somebody from saying oh you know what, we want to just knock on your door two in the morning because we have suspicion that you said a word and we're going to snoop around now. That could be the next step and that becomes a very slippery slope.

CHS: Well do you want another fucking Boston bombing, you want another 9/11? I mean--

CT: No, hell no I don't.

CHS: --if those, those are trigger, if those are trigger words to then surveil somebody or like for them to like look into someone more, if there's, if they're that person has nothing to hide then they have nothing to worry about.

CT: No I agree with that 100% but I just feel that you shouldn't surveil everyone, you know, that's like a crazy thing.

CHS: Yeah.

CT: Because how can you do that? It's like finding a needle in the haystack.

CHS: But to, to save lives, to-to keep everyone safe? I'm, I don't care. Hack my fucking phone because I don't give a shit.

CT: Yeah but then when you're, people are listening to your private intimate things that have nothing to do with if you're a law abiding citizen, you know?

CHS: If people get off on that--

CT: It's like [UI].

CHS: --God be with them.

CT: Because like they would get off on that I [UI] [chuckles].

CHS: Oh yeah having phone sex, okay.

CT: That's like Egypt and surveillance [UI].

CHS: Because like porn hub is not enough for everyone who's surveilling you, like they want to listen to your intimate phone conversations.

CT: What about porntube.com?

CHS: Who? What the fuck is that?

CHS: [Laughs]

CT: I'm not into porn any more really.

CHS: There's no reason to be.

CT: I'm not into it anymore.

CHS: You're a good Christian man.

CT: It just doesn't do anything. I mean it--

CHS: I need, I need to touch a woman. I need to like...

CT: Yeah. I mean I don't get porn really anymore.

CHS: And it's a--

CT: [UI] in Japan.

CHS: --billion dollar industry.

CT: In Japan like everybody's into virtual sex and dolls and no one's really fucking--

CHS: [OV] That's so fucking weird.

CT: --anybody. Have you read that?

CHS: Yeah.

CT: Like no one in Japan is actually fucking.

CHS: Did you see the, the article, the BBC article about Indian men?

CT: No.

CHS: In India they have a high pregnancy rate because the condoms [UI] and high STDs as well, because condoms, standard size condoms keep on falling off of their dicks.

CT: I don't believe that.

CHS: It's a BBC article if, when I find it I'm going to forward it to you.

CHS: It was a rumor. [Laughs] And I've never heard that.

CT: [UI] everywhere you go is like Japanese [UI].

CHS: They don't have that issue in any Asian countries, just saying that.

CT: Asian?

CHS: Uh-huh.

CT: [UI] what?

CHS: Like uh, oriental countries, Japanese, Korean--

CT: [UI]

CHS: --they don't have that issue.

CT: [UI] just impotent.

CHS: No. Chinese fuck like, uh--

CT: When I put a condom on, like it sometimes gets me limp.

CHS: It gets you limp?

CT: Yeah.

CT: And what were they interviewing you about?

CHS: They gave you a lot of, uh, what is it called where they, uh, there's like a questionnaire like, I feel like that's a mental, mental stability, uh, exam.

CT: Oh yeah?

CHS: Yeah, like when you, when I applied for a job at [REDACTED] like they ask, I've never been asked so many questions in my life and [REDACTED].

CT: At [REDACTED], like what job at [REDACTED]?

CHS: I worked as a, as a [REDACTED] and then I did [REDACTED], I ended up working at [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and then moved on to--

CT: After college?

CHS: I did it, no during high school.

CT: Oh. Gosh.

CHS: Um, it's getting hot. Uh, well like they had it was like, I forgot what is it? What kind of, uh, it's bothering me. It's like what would you do in this situation, like how would you react in this situation, what is it, you know, those stupid questions.

CT: Oh.

CHS: And give me a time when, what is that called?

CT: [UI]

CHS: The type of interview it is, it's a, it's [UI].

CT: [UI]

CHS: One of [REDACTED] questions though I was, I vividly remember was like, uh, the the answer was, how or the question was like how angry would you be if, um, if you saw an associate stealing something how angry would you be? One, not too angry and like ten really really angry--

CT: [Chuckles]

CHS: --very upset. Like there was no--

CT: What did you, what did you put like an eight?

CHS: I said, I said if I saw someone it would make me pissed so I put like a, yeah like an eight or nine. But they want, they want the extremes of the other, they don't want the in the middle people apparently.

CT: Really?

CHS: Yeah.

CT: So that's why they did they select you or no?

CHS: Uh, yeah I worked for [REDACTED] for almost three years I think.

CT: You've always been hustling man and I really like that. [UI] it's kind of like you know what I've been doing too since college is hustling making my way in the world, you know? Not being just waiting for somebody to give me a hand-me-down, fuck that right?

CHS: Psh.

CT: It's America, you know?

CHS: Uh, you know if anybody gave me money I--

CT: I mean look it obviously helps--

CHS: Yeah.

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

CT: But if you prove that you can do it on your own, that's a great thing. It's like you said at the beginning of when we were eating, how many people our age disrespect things now [UI] so I got my degree in [REDACTED] so I want my company job [UI] your like no, right? [UI] people just kind of like say that's enough stay away from me. I mean you got people like PHDs in [REDACTED] [UI] I mean people really like enjoy that, first of all teaching at Universities like those jobs are gone--

CHS: Yeah.

CT: --even political science jobs are going to be gone which that's a real shame, you know, because I truly believe every student in America should take one or two political science classes.

CHS: Of course.

CT: You've got to know about the world and the system we live in.

CHS: Half the people voting for Trump, I think personally this is just my personal opinion, half of them are uneducated motherfuckers. And half the people that were voting for Bernie Sanders are overeducated potheads. So like those--

CT: [UI]

[Laughter]

CHS: So the middle ground to me was Hillary Clinton.

CT: Did you, did you like Bernie?

CHS: No I, his, his number, everything wasn't realistic about him like he would be a great dream, like the, the things that he, he dreamed of that thought he could accomplish and put into people's minds, like yeah we can accomplish this we can do this, we can do, no we can't. Your numbers don't make sense, you can't put your puzzle pieces in the, you can't put your puzzle pieces together like it's not going to, it's not going to work.

CT: But you know why he gained so much traction? And it goes to show you of the power of body language and believing in what you say. Even though you know it to be a lie.

CHS: Sure.

CT: Isn't that incredible? Meaning you could be the most qualified person on paper [UI] but if you don't have the posture and like the conviction in what you are about to tell somebody like in an interview or whatnot no one gives a shit. I mean Jeb Bush, Marco Rubio, all these guys on paper probably seem better, you know, because I mean, for politician I guess, I did, I never thought they were better, but I'm just saying on paper.

CHS: Yeah.

CT: One was a [UI] that kind of stuff, but because neither looked too rehearsed and they didn't believe in what they were really saying people just were fed up. Where do you think the country is going to go moving forward if he wins and if he loses? Let's say he loses.

CHS: With Trump?

CT: Yeah, let's say he loses first.

CHS: Say, say Trump loses I think we're going to, there's going to be a--

CT: Backlash.

CHS: --backlash is going to be, I feel like there might be a revolt of the South. I feel like the South is going to try to bring back slavery, I, I don't know I just feel like--

CT: Hold on a second, wait, wait hold on that's a loaded [UI].

CHS: [OV] No, I know it's very loaded, but [UI]...

CT: [UI]

CHS: And it's also s- it's also part sarcastic and I'm being facetious.

CT: Yeah but hold on the reason I say this is because you have to understand this country has never been more divided under a black president so that's why I'm interested to see why you would say that. Because Obama in my opinion has divided this country. Black lives matter, justice, you know the Justice Department investigating police.

CHS: Yeah I look at Obama he's a lame duck president he can't do anything because [UI].

CT: [UI] years though.

CHS: Yeah he has been because the Republicans have taken over the senate and congress. So he can't do anything, he can't push anything [UI].

CT: What about race relations have nothing to do with [UI].

CHS: Race [UI]--

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

CT: [UI]

CHS: You know it, it kind of does, like when people say like the Obamacare it benefits only the poor and underprivileged, well yeah the poor and underprivileged in this country is highly, uh, non-white so I mean if you're, if you have Republicans that like say, oh Obamacare--

CT: Why don't you [UI].

CHS: --doesn't work, what does that make the white Republican senator look like? To all of these people who are relying on Obamacare. How does it?

CT: I still to this day don't know what Obamacare is?

CHS: [Chuckles] No one does.

CT: No one does.

CHS: No one does, but they know it, it's almost, I don't know if you can afford it, it will be provided for you and if you can you use no pay.

CT: [UI] I mean, just basically leave it how it was.

CHS: That's what India does. If you can pay, they pay for double. Like if you can pay for a vaccine, you pay for two vaccines. So they give a lot of free vaccines away in India and it works.

CT: [UI] that's great.

CHS: It's fucking great. So if it works there, there's got to be some sort of step and process that would make it kind of work here.

CT: I, like I said, I believe that if you're making under X amount of dollars it should be free, it should actually be socialized health care. Like you go and you get it paid for, if you're making over and you can afford it [UI] make sense. Because I don't believe that--

CHS: It's not like Trump is making for his own fucking healthcare anyway because he'll write that off as a fucking medical expense. [Chuckles] [UI] seriously. [UI] five million dollar surgery and write that off, like who cares.

CT: What I was reading was that a lot of millennials people like [REDACTED] aren't even invested in healthcare because of Obamacare.

CHS: That's it?

CT: Yeah.

CHS: God bless you.

CT: How much do you pay?

CHS: Psh. Mine's 350 a month.

CT: Why is it 350?

CHS: Because that's full coverage health insurance from my company.

CT: But what's your deductible?

CHS: Um, I think 1,500.

CT: [UI] oh, see mine's 5,000 that's why.

CHS: So yeah, I mean, do you have to pay [UI].

CT: [UI] pay up 5,000, but I pay less than you too, you know, because--

CHS: I mean, I didn't go to the doctor at all last year, I didn't need to.

CT: That's a great deductible they've given you though. What's 350 a month because then just means pay [UI] 1,500 up front. And if you have like a real serious--

CT: [Chuckles] Well it's basically like the Russians.

CHS: Extra square. This is a [REDACTED] [UI].

CT: And I was facing some Russians in poker there man and they were [UI] we don't even give a fuck what we have, we just want to get you out. So we just want to see what you have, I mean they have like nothing, but they kept put, putting it all in, I must have made like, I don't know, [REDACTED] from them and then I went all in and then they just wiped me out.

CHS: [Scoffs]

CT: Because they didn't care how much they were losing. Yeah they were.

CHS: No I don't play poker.

CT: Why?

CHS: I play blackjack and I, you know what, I, to be honest I don't want to get entangled in a game that I, I just don't know very well?

CT: You don't know poker well?

CHS: I don't know it very well.

CT: Okay.

CHS: I know it, I know the basics of it, but I don't, I don't want to get myself entangled and just, j-jump in poker game that to me, it's also a waste of time because you're there for like two or three hours sitting with people when you go to roulette is like this and blackjack's like this. Why, why you want to, why you want wait?

CT: Yeah you can make big money though off [UI] you feel like you're more in control there, which you are. You're not in control at all in blackjack and roulette. You're very in control in poker, very in control.

CHS: [Sighs]

CT: I say we, we do a buy-in and do some poker.

CHS: No.

CT: Knock the [REDACTED] out tonight.

CHS: Not tonight, next week.

CT: [UI]

CHS: That [REDACTED] looks fucked up.

CT: Are we in [REDACTED]?

CHS: Yeah. Once you see the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED].

CT: Oh.

CHS: So what are, what are some of your like big connections with Trump that's going to get you anywhere say he doesn't like, win, like [UI] like who there is going to get, like, who of his supporters are people part of his committee is going to keep you working?

CT: Forget, forget those guys. That's not what I want to do. If he loses, what I would like to do is to be my own brand. Like my own kind of like speaker consultant that represents like governments in Washington, kind of like a lobbyist almost. You get what I'm saying? Because--

CHS: What the hell do you want to do in Russia then?

CT: Well, Russia that's you know I was, I was on the front page of Russia's biggest newspaper.

CHS: You were on the front page of their biggest newspaper, for what?

CT: Did you see it?

CHS: No.

CT: [UI] Dude.

CHS: [OV] For what?

CT: [OV] You didn't see it? [Pause] For, uh, this interview I gave for them like two weeks ago, three weeks ago.

CHS: For what though, like what kind of interview?

CT: What's Mr. Trump going to do about Russia if he wins, what are your thoughts on ISIS, what are your thoughts on this, all this shit.

CHS: On their front page?

CT: I'll send it to you it's nuts. I don't understand why the US has such a problem with Russia, man. [UI] you know when I was in [REDACTED]

CHS: Well Russia comes off as very threatening, like to be honest with you any Russians that I've met I've always felt like they want to take something from me. Just, just these fucking Russians that I meet and I know they're, they're [UI] the low of the low, like people that I've encountered, outside of [REDACTED] [PH] she was hot even though she looked like she--

CT: Who's [REDACTED]

CHS: --was a, [REDACTED] our waitress.

CT: Oh.

CHS: Even though she looked like she was a leech, I don't know I'm not fucking looking her up.

CT: I think she was a call girl.

CHS: You think so? I think she came here as a sex slave maybe.

CT: I, I think she came here as a [UI] call girl--

CHS: You think?

CT: --well because she had botox in her lips.

CHS: You think that's what it was?

CT: I'm 100% sure, yes.

CHS: I've seen botoxed lips and theirs were like in the middle.

CT: No she, those weren't her original lips, no way. And then like how she was talking like [UI] wild sex at my, no one talks like that, you know, unless, you know what I mean?

CHS: Well yeah any Russians that I fucking met, like, they all seem like they want something from you. Like even [REDACTED] she said that she's, she's like oh you can't afford me.

CT: Yeah.

CHS: Like [UI].

CT: And she was serious too, that means she's running [UI] don't you think so?

CHS: Maybe?

CT: I would, I'm 100% sure she probably has five sugar daddies.

CHS: Hmm.

CT: And that's, you know, and it's like part of their culture in Eastern Europe, you know? Like they want, like a, they don't care how a man looks at all, in Eastern Europe and Russia by the way.

CHS: [OV] Yeah there's some ugly--

CT: [UI]

CHS: --ass fucking men, but beautiful women.

CT: What they care about is a manly man who has money can take care of them, that's all the care about. For them, they look down upon like the good looking broke guy. [UI]

CHS: Well what do you think about, uh, Putin over-glorified on the horse? [Laughs]

CT: [UI]

CHS: You know [UI].

CHS: You ever met the motherfucker though?

CT: They invited me to go and thank God I didn't go though.

CHS: Why?

CT: Because this was about [REDACTED] ago when I was in [REDACTED] I actually met with his, uh, niece [UI].

CHS: Putin's niece?

CT: Yeah.

CHS: You met with her?

CT: Yeah her name's [REDACTED] and, uh--

CHS: Aren't they all named [REDACTED] [Chuckles]

CT: [UI] and the Russian Ambassador there because I [UI] I was working at like this [REDACTED] --

CHS: Mm-hmm.

CT: --and the guy was like well connected to the Russian government, it, it's a weird story and--

CHS: Tell me more. [Chuckles]

CT: --well I'm t- dude maybe like if loses we could figure something out because you know, I need somebody like on with me like to try and, I don't know what I got to, how I'm going monetize it, but I have to be an idiot not to monetize it, get it? Even if he loses. If anything, I feel like if he loses probably could be better for my personal business because if he wins I'm going to be in some bureaucracy I can't do jack shit, you know? I'll tell you, when we'll sit down I'll tell you [UI] it's interesting.

CHS: What sit down at the poker table?

CT: [UI] saying, I'm just speaking out loud, you know, like just trying to figure out because, you know--

CT: Don't think that there's smart people out there, there are just not. Do you know how many members of Congress I've met than know jack shit about anything? Except what their advisors tell them?

CHS: Psh.

CT: They can barely put a sentence together.

CHS: I can only imagine.

CT: I'm talking about members of congress dude.

CHS: Yeah.

CT: You know that picture I have on my [REDACTED]

CHS: Yeah.

CT: Those are four members of congress [UI].

CHS: [UI] you look like you're bored out of your mind.

CT: [Chuckles]

[Beeping sounds]

UM: You go it.

[Background noise and conversations]

[Music in background]

[Beeping sounds]

UM: [UI]

UM: [UI]

CHS: Hey, just so you know man, you can't be on the phone at the table.

CT: What's that?

CHS: You can't be on the phone at the table.

CT: Yeah, I know—

CHS: Well, I'm just letting you know.

[Rustling]

CHS: Oh, you know, then why you don't, then—

UM: Hey

UM: [UI] ours, ours is the new iPhone 7. [UI] for taking a glare, a glimpse.

■ LNU: No, he knew. He just said fuck you [REDACTED] [PH].

CHS: [Laughs]

CT: It's a [UI] [REDACTED], I love them.

CHS: That's just his—

CHS: --Halloween costume.

UM: --now we got to win tonight, that's all that matters.

CT: Hm-hmm.

CHS: What is this? Sixty-nine, sixty-nine?

UM: [UI].

UM2: Fifteen. All right.

CHS: Do me better.

UM: [UI].

CHS: Son of a bitch. [REDACTED] what the hell are you doing to me?

■LNU: That was all [UI].

CHS: You suck at life.

■LNU: See, you guys should have let me hit.

UM: [UI]

■LNU: That's not my fault anymore.

UM2: Six, Spades.

CHS: Four, five, seven, where's my bonus? [Laughs]

UM2: Six.

UM: You [UI] on this or not?

■LNU: Yeah—

CHS: The way he's been playing.

■LNU: What do you think? What was your first thought? You can do it yes, but uh, if you're first thought's no, don't do it.

■ LNU: Yep.

■ LNU: Thirteen, sixteen, out.

UM: You're up.

[yawning]

UM: [UI]

CHS: Pay me. [laughs]

UM2: Alright Fourteen.

CHS: That's what I was looking for.

UM: Uhm-hm.

CHS: Come on, give me something nice.

UM2: Eighteen.

UM: Yeah.

UM: Son of a b-.

CHS: [REDACTED]? --

■ LNU: Yeah, I know.

CHS: You're pissing me off, man.

UM: I know, I'm a horrible person. How do I sleep at night?

CHS: Oh, what the fuck is this? Oh, you're shitting me.

UM2: [UI] open?

UM: [UI]

UM2: Fifteen?

UM2: Sixteen

UM2: Seventeen.

UM: That's a win right there.

UM: I thought it was the high limit for a second.

UM: Come on, babe.

CHS: Save somebody.

UM: Damn.

UM: You're faking, buddy.

UM: He's bluffing.

UM: What is it?

UM: Nobody.

UM2: Fifteen.

UM: Damn.

UM: Come on, ace.

UM: Oh.

CHS: Here we go.

■ LNU: What is that? Fifteen [UI]— no. Fifty-four.

■ LNU: Fifteen, sixteen, oh-- we got an easy one.

CHS: Where's my ten? Come on.

■ LNU: My ten, come on.

CHS: Somebody here, give somebody a ten.

UM: Oh, no [UI] it here. Okay.

■ LNU: Tip. It's free, right?

CHS: Very nice.

■ LNU: There you go, peacefully.

CHS: Pay us and go home. [laughs]

UM: That's yeah.

[Laughing]

CHS: Get the fuck out of here.

■ LNU: Get the fuck out of here.

UM: [laughs] [UI]

UM: What [UI].

CHS: Oh, this is a double down, isn't it? Son of a bitch

UM: Alright alright.

CHS: Uhm, no, nah, no. That was push. I'm kidding.

[laughing]

UM: [UI]

[laughing]

[pause]

CHS: Go big or go home right? Oh what the fuck is this shit. [Laughing] Oh--

UM: That [UI]--

CHS: Oh, [laughs].

UM: [UI] it's open.

[Pause]

CHS: Get the fuck out of here.

UM: I say 200 on 17 [UI].

CHS: Yeah, right, and has that table hit 17 yet. Motherfucker, it hit 17 while we're gone.

CT: I told you, man, you didn't believe me. What if it hits it again right now?

[pause]

CHS: Well it-- I'm depressed.

UM: Well dude—

CHS: I'm depressed.

[laughing]

UM: Uhm--

[laughing]

UM: You set me.

CHS: Your chest hair.

CT: Go get some Chinese. [laughs]

CT: What got us here, man.

UM: I [UI]--

UM: What the hell did he do to my cards?

UM: I say we put 200 on 17, get the fuck out of here.

CHS: Yeah, especially win that 1,200.

UM: [SC] Get the fuck out of here.

CHS: The six, six thousand.

UM: No, it's seven thousand.

CHS: Two hundred? A hundred —it's thirty-five hundred

UM: [SC] Five hundred.

CHS: That's $7,000. I thought you liked-- I thought you were good at math.

CT: [UI] deplorables [UI].

CHS: You know what, uh, you know--

[laughing]

CHS: --if you come here and you just have a little bit of fun.

CHS: Make this the weekend thing, and that's it. Saturdays, and that's it. Or Fridays, one of the two.

UF: Doing good?

UM: Oh, we want drinks?

CHS: Nah.

UM: No?

CHS: I'm depressed.

UM: Just one.

CHS: I got to pick up that girlfriend around 6:30, so--

CT: Oh, you do? What time is it?

CHS: It's a, 4:30.

CT: Four thirty?

[pause]

CHS: That cock's bigger.

CT: Where do you-- [laughs] Where do you pick her up [UI]?

CHS: No, some [REDACTED], [REDACTED], I think she has a [REDACTED]

[laughing]

CT: Well if he's to say he has four and half fingers.

CHS: Does he have just four fingers? On one hand he's got like four fingers.

CT: There's one [UI] down at [REDACTED].

[laughs]

CHS: You know why he's always got his left hand in his pocket, because he's only got four fingers.

CT: [UI]

CHS: He had it cropped, because he had it chopped off in Somalia when they caught him stealing some apples.

CT: [UI]

CHS: Don't worry about it. I know your work is sporadic.

CHS: So tell me how we can fucking make some money. I need to make some-- I w-- I want to see a million before I die. Just like [REDACTED] said.

UM: [UI]

CHS: Got to see a million before they die.

UM: [OV] No way [UI]. I'm going over there and see if [REDACTED] going to hit big. Like four [UI]--

[SC]

UM: Just really stick [UI].

CHS: Well how are you going all in?

UM: I just, I hope they call the numbers. Hopefully [UI]—something to do.

UM: [UI] games.

CHS: You boys going to bet against them? I wish, I wish Vegas was placing political bets. That's [UI].

UM: Really? I'd be all over that.

CHS: I don't think so.

UM: I think people are—

CHS: I don't think so. You, well it's possible, only because I feel like the rural people who are his biggest supporters are going to come out in masses. And they did come out for Obama, so imagine. And the KKK never in their history has endorsed the candidate. Never in their history have they endorsed the candidate.

Even in the last election they said that we don't endorse Obama or—or, uh, or McCain, or who was the other guy. Right?

CHS: And they finally—they-they-they give him good credits.

UM: What was those loans though? What was that loan called? The R2D2?

CHS: R2D2? [whistles]

CT: So I don't understand that [UI]. What do you—just question [UI]. It technically could be called a landowner. That they use that—

CHS: Three and a half percent loan, yeah.

CT: But see, that's [UI].

CHS: Nothing.

CT: It's absolutely. Even if it's like a $500,000 [UI]—

CHS: Uh, one caveat to that is, you will pay mortgage insurance of anywhere from $250 to $500 a month.

CT: Really?

CHS: Yeah.

CT: [UI]

CHS: But once you refinance out of it, because you're doing the 3 ½% down. The government's like, okay, we're doing this, but we've also put insurance on you.

CT: [OV] What are they-- [UI].

CHS: No, it's not a scheme, it's just, [loud background noise] it allows people who can't afford to buy a house, with 20% down, to buy a house legitimately.

CT: So how do they know like ones that are dilapidated and what's not [UI]

CHS: The house or the person?

CT: The per—the house.

[getting into vehicle]

CHS: The house doesn't necessarily have to be, uh, up to code, but if-if it can easily be brought up to code within your loan-granted amount, so—I got approved and qualified for, I think 650 or something like that.

CT: Did you really?

CHS: Yeah. So they made it more.

CT: Now when did you get to--wh, do that, like years ago or recently?

CHS: This was two years ago.

CT: Uh. So but you, I assume you have to have a job showing income.

CHS: Of course. You have to have at least two years of, uh, job history. If you are a consultant, if you're independent, uh—

CT: [OV] [UI] shows there's money.

CHS: --contractor, it still shows that you have money, you got money coming in.

CT: Yeah. Okay.

CHS: So tell me, give me—give me some fucking, give me some fucking—

CT: [OV] So put it this way, I-I've met all these people, whereas—

CHS: Okay.

CT: I know them all.

CHS: Will I have to dress up in a business suit?

CT: Hell yeah you do.

CHS: I got-I got an-I got an Armani suit.

CT: What--who do you know here in [REDACTED] that would be like tempting for any of these kind of people to get to know? That's the first thing, that's where I like...do you know, do you have connections in the city of [REDACTED]?

CHS: I mean [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

CT: [OV] Like, what, what would a FOB or like a government uh, want here in [REDACTED]? You know, like what would they want? Like to pay for, like access? Because that's what we have to sell is access.

That's what people pay millions of dollars for every year. It's the cleanest job--

CHS: I mean special interests here, what-w-w—

CT: Yeah.

CHS: --well look at, look at, look at [REDACTED] [PH], okay? My, uh, my friend

CT: [OV] They're going out and telling [UI]—

CHS: --[OV] bribing people.

CT: They're going out and saying, I know him, meet him, and talk business, and the rest is your business which you guys do. Well the, those lobbyists get paid, just to make that introduction. That's all—from what, every time I talk to these—

CHS: So then what the hell are we going to do in Russia?

CT: Well the thing is, like—

CHS: What the hell's Russia's interest with [REDACTED]?

CT: They definitely want to invest and, you know, to build like commercial ties. Dude that's like, nuclear, this is millions of dollars at stake.

CHS: Yeah, no shit.

CT: But I don't know anyone here in [REDACTED].

CHS: Dude, why not?

CT: I don't know [UI]--

CHS: Yeah!

CT: [UI]

CHS: Yeah.

CT: [UI] No really?

CHS: Yeah. He's like all over, all about her, all over her.

CT: Well what did--

CHS: I saw [REDACTED] over, uh, this past New Years in [REDACTED] He's building some sort of house in the, in the, in the [REDACTED] I think.

CT: He's building a house?

CHS: Mm-hmm.

CT: [UI]

CHS: I told him I'd come--

CT: [UI]

CHS: I told him I'd come and help him. Man, I don't know, suburbs of some random ass city.

CHS: Yeah, he doesn't wear deodorant.

CT: [UI] And [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] actually slept together huh wow.

CHS: Remember that girl that, uh, [REDACTED] was dating, that [REDACTED] girl?

CT: Yeah.

CHS: beaten over the head.

CT: [UI]

CHS: I don't know, I think the guy was sentenced to life and his mom said I'd never raise such an animal or something like that. It was in the newspaper--

CT: [UI]

CHS: Yeah. That's why [REDACTED] was like, he was fucking messed up for a while on that.

CT: Messed up?

CHS: Oh yeah. He started hanging out, well what was that gay guy he hung out with all the time?

CT: [UI]

CHS: I don't know it was one of his neighbors or something, he became really close with him.

CT: He had a gay friend?

CHS: Yeah. I think he almost became his like best friend or something.

CT: And what, what's that mean exactly?

CHS: They were just hanging out all the time--

CT: [OV] [UI] or something?

CHS: --after that incident. No it wasn't problematic it was just like--

CT: No, no was the man problematic as a person dysfunctional or, I mean [UI]?

CHS: No, I mean he, he's just, he's just flamboyantly gay, but I never pictured [REDACTED] hanging out with a guy like that, but I mean, he, he created a bond especially after that, what happened with [REDACTED]

CT: Interesting, so...

CHS: With, uh, that girl and that was just sick man.

CT: Now [REDACTED] [REDACTED] like, so she broke up with [REDACTED] or then what happened?

CHS: Uh, I don't think they were of- every officially dating, but they slept together so.

CT: Interesting. And she just didn't like him anymore or?

CT: I thought she liked Indian guys.

CHS: She did at the time and now she says she's over that shit.

CT: She's over that shit?

CHS: You know what I told her, I'm like listen if you're going to date someone outside of your culture, you have to respect the fact that you're probably never going to get married and if you do, it's going to be a very, a problematic thing for your family because look at you, what--

CT: [OV] Yeah.

CHS: --happened with you?

CT: Yeah, but I don't know like how [REDACTED] people, like family are. I think they're probably like oh it's fine, because they have no culture [UI].

CHS: Yeah and, and I'm sure that like--

CT: [OV] Can I ask you?

CHS: --[REDACTED] family would think that's fine, but the Indian's family is not going to think that's fine. That is not going to think that's okay.

CT: Was she actually dating like Indian guys or she's just like [UI].

CHS: Yeah, a couple of them. She dated a couple of them.

CT: Really?

CHS: Yeah.

CT: But she's not into that anymore?

CHS: I don't think so. She's been nothing but dating white guys so.

CT: So here, like you hang out with her then.

CHS: Occasionally it's like she, if I throw a barbeque or party, she comes by.

CHS: Yeah. She's super nice, super sweet.

CT: [UI] girl [UI] I was just like [UI].

CHS: That's a, that's a very good girl, I like, I like I like people like that in general, like, people who are bubbly and happy and all the time and not worried--

CT: Not miserable motherfuckers.

CHS: Yeah.

CT: [UI]

CHS: Like you, you and I look fucking miserable right now. We need to hit a million dollars.

CT: We do man. Who else, uh, oh how about [REDACTED] [PH]?

CHS: I saw, I think I saw him in New York once or something and I tried to reach out with, no I just tried to reach out--

CT: [OV] It's okay he was a little shady [UI] I don't know. [REDACTED] Remember [REDACTED]

CHS: Oh yeah.

CT: Ten ten looking guy.

CHS: Uh-huh.

CT: What happened to him?

CHS: No idea.

CT: Who else did we used to all hang out with?

CHS: Oh what's, uh, [REDACTED] friends name? [REDACTED] [PH].

CT: Yeah what happened to her?

CHS: She lived in Guinea for a little bit.

CT: Guinea? What was she doing there?

CHS: Uh, I think she was working for a French company on the, and she's just like, I--

CT: [OV] Is she still a nanny?

CHS: No, she's in France now.

CT: She loves [REDACTED], man.

CHS: Yeah.

CT: Like to this day.

CHS: She was beautiful too. She was very happy, she was v-very much like the--

CT: [OV] I like her.

CHS: --[REDACTED] uh--

CT: I like her, I liked [REDACTED] a lot. I miss those days, man.

CHS: Yeah [UI].

CT: [UI] happened to friends like that, you know?

CHS: You know people come and go. You fucking disappeared out of everyone's life we thought you were fucking doing big shit when we saw that article, we're like oh shit, look at Crossfire Typhoon--

CT: I-I --

CHS: --he's making, he's making money.

CT: I am making money but the problem is it doesn't last forever unless something happens, you know. That's the problem, you know and I mean that's, that's the name of the game you know. It's like casinos [UI]. [chuckles]

CHS: Yeah.

CT: [UI]

CHS: I mean you take gambles and risks in life, you know, you have to.

CT: You have to, man you have to, there's no point in [UI].

CHS: Like honestly I took a risk buying my place. You know I don't--

CT: Yeah.

CHS: --my risk is not even knowing I could get enough [REDACTED], like, when my, my [REDACTED] [REDACTED] so I'm good until September of next year.

CT: [REDACTED]?

CHS: Yeah, [REDACTED]. [REDACTED].

CT: Yeah, yeah.

CHS: And then the [REDACTED]. They just want another [REDACTED] [REDACTED] I was like okay I was fine with that, but what happens in [REDACTED] [REDACTED], when I like, I've got [REDACTED] in my, in my [REDACTED] I'm worried because I don't know if I can afford to last another two three months which, you know, I have, I have a stability account that will keep me alive for, you know, maybe two or three months, but if I don't find [REDACTED] I might even give the [REDACTED] out so I can have at least some money coming in.

CT: How much are you [REDACTED]?

CHS: [REDACTED] which is just a [REDACTED] and it's about half--

CT: [UI] yeah.

CHS: --and [REDACTED] is about [REDACTED] and [REDACTED].

CHS: It's a [REDACTED]. I was [REDACTED]

CHS: It's like, uh, [REDACTED] and, uh, [REDACTED] Right by [REDACTED]

CT: You know what, my, we used to have a [REDACTED] on, um, [REDACTED]. You know the [REDACTED]

CHS: Yeah.

CT: Yeah. Know where the, like, [REDACTED]

CHS: Mm-hmm.

CT: Over there? You know and [REDACTED] there we used to have a, a, a...

CHS: That's a booming area right now, man.

CT: Yep, yep we got a great deal [UI].

CHS: Why did you sell?

CT: Well we sold it like 10 years ago.

CHS: You didn't know it was going. You didn't know [REDACTED].

CT: [REDACTED]. They're still there. I was just there like two days ago.

CHS: Yeah they are s- they're still there, but they're like barely occupied, ten percent occupancy.

CT: Yeah.

CHS: I don't know either the city is getting way too much money in taxes for them or?

CT: Well we had, we had problems I think with termites or something in that building.

CHS: Ah.

CT: But we sold it for, pre-premium, you know?

CHS: Yeah.

CT: Um, but I remember that it was on [REDACTED] so, yeah, so it's like where you live, right?

CHS: Yeah, I went to [REDACTED]

CT: Yeah. [UI]

CHS: You wearing socks with those?

CT: No.

CHS: You got stinky ass [REDACTED] feet?

CT: Do you?

CHS: No I'm wearing Toms. [laughs]

CT: Should we go shopping, man. You-you need any clothes or anything?

CHS: You know what? That sounds like a good idea.

CT: Lets go [UI].

CHS: Right now? No.

CT: You know what I want to get actually? I want to get a Joe Malone candle.

CHS: Joe Malone? What the fuck is a Joe Malone candle? That sounds expensive and un-unnecessary.

CT: Well it's expensive, but it's amazing. If you like candles it's like the top candle. It's like 50 bucks. But it's like--

CHS: I got, my friend that worked at Tom Ford she gave me the oud candle.

CT: It's a, it's an oud with rose?

CHS: Oh that sounds amazing.

CT: Bro, I'm telling you, you got to-- CHS: Tell you what, next weekend we go to the casino. We hit big. We go shopping. If we don't--

CT: [OV] Shopping makes me happy.

CHS: Yeah.

CT: Doesn't it?

CHS: Oh yeah.

CT: [UI]

CHS: When you have money to shop.

CT: Yeah, I mean even if like you put in the card like it actually--

CHS: It's therapy. It can be therapeutic when you--

CT: It is.

CHS: --buy something new, refreshing.

CT: See for me that is therapeutic. For me going and getting blacked out isn't therapeutic.

CHS: No it's not.

CT: Maybe while I was like 20 or [UI].

CHS: No, it's still not to this day.

CT: No, when I was 20 I'm saying.

CHS: Yeah.

CT: But now, I actually like going and shopping and getting nice, like, not nice--

CHS: [OV] Find a way for me to make 100,000 dollars more than I am and I'm, uh--

CT: Should we get some Joe Malone candles?

CT: Fifty bucks [UI].

CHS: Eh, come on. I'd rather throw that on 17 and take the risk.

CT: [Laughs]

CHS: I know I'm going to have this beautiful, wonderful scent in my house for a thirty days, but I'd rather--

CT: Oh yeah it lasts about two, three months. It's, it's you know it really changes your house, you know, having that oud and like the rose.

CHS: It's oud rose mixed?

CT: Yeah. Oud, rose and something else. It's--you can't find it anywhere it's amazing. They even have like colognes, body sprays. It's a London brand, it's really nice.

CHS: Mm.

CT: Weren't you at [REDACTED] like--

CHS: Yeah I [REDACTED] for a little bit.

CT: Downtown, right?

CHS: No, in [REDACTED] [PH].

CT: Oh man, if you were downtown you would probably make a killing on [REDACTED].

CHS: Yeah um, downtown was [REDACTED] based. I couldn't handle that so.

CT: You couldn't?

CHS: It would be too much for me. Like not knowing if I didn't sell enough and losing my job, no. I was fine. I was an [REDACTED] and I was fine. I had the keys to the place. I had steady income, I was fine. If I sold--

[Ringing tones]

CHS: I see all these people downtown working at these, like, [REDACTED] and they look like they're well off.

CT: Yeah that's what I mean. Hello? Hello? [REDACTED] [REDACTED] The campaign, the campaign. [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

CHS: [REDACTED]

CT: [UI] bye bye bye.

CHS: [Chuckles] This your dad?

CT: Yeah.

CHS: [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

CT: How does that sound?

CHS: It sounds weird. Okay b-b-bye.

CT: Sounds weird?

CHS: You all do that, though. Like all the [REDACTED] they say oh b-b-bye.

CT: B-b-bye. [Chuckles]

CHS: B-b-bye.

CT: [UI] man. You know what?

CHS: [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [Laughs]

CT: So check this weird stuff out. Speaking of girlfriends, so I've been, I know it's going to sound weird but I've been kind of like a pen pal, not a pen pal, but like this girl found me on [REDACTED] like four years ago, this [REDACTED]

CHS: Oh! What was that [REDACTED] from, uh, [REDACTED] you remember her?

CT: Who?

CHS: She was a little bit chubby. I can't fucking remember these people's names.

CT: They let you put pictures on there?

CHS: Yeah you can just go like this and then--

CT: Oh that's cool.

CHS: You can edit and then add a picture.

CT: Oh yeah [UI] I still got the 5s. So it was interesting because, and then I brought her to [REDACTED] [PH] with me this past summer.

CHS: And then what?

CT: Well we like met there.

CHS: You met in [REDACTED]

CT: Yeah it went like really well?

CHS: You met her [REDACTED]

CT: Yeah.

CHS: You fucking creep. How do you meet [REDACTED]

CT: Well, alright you know how like, you know like a famous person, right? Like you'd write underneath like a comment of like something they post? Well I guess she liked one of my comments I wrote like four years ago. She added me and I was like oh fuck. And then we met and now she wants to come visit here. But I can't be like be taking care of somebody like this and [UI] doesn't even have a citizenship.

CHS: She's fucking coming here for a visit, take it and have fun.

CHS: Don't, don't live and think about [UI].

CT: That means I have to pay her.

CHS: What do you mean you got to pay?

CT: [UI]

CHS: She's coming here on vacation--

CT: She don't got [sic] no money. [UI]

CHS: How much you going to spend on a prostitute? I thought about this the other day--

CT: I don't know. I don't know.

CHS: --I'm like if I take, if I take [REDACTED] out for dinner how much am I going to spend on a prostitute? What are prostitutes going for?

CT: Two hundred euros.

CHS: For a good one? Someone that, uh, above average just to go out with for one hour of your time? I'd rather go and fucking spend 50 dollars on dinner and fucking have good sex at home.

CT: Well and there's no, for me it's more of an emotional connection I enjoy with a normal girl. That's why I could never do the whole prostitute thing. Never--

CHS: It's disgusting. I mean it, it--

CT: It's never did anything for me, because, because for me sex is emotional and mental--

CHS: [Laughs]

CT:--[UI].

CHS: You fucking woman.

CT: [UI] it is man. For me it's mental. Isn't it, for you?

CHS: It can. it depends.

CHS: Go to [REDACTED]. Get married.

CT: I guess that's the only place.

CHS: Find some girl at, uh, [REDACTED].

CT: [UI]

CHS: I want to go check out the, there's another [REDACTED] I want to check out. I forgot their name.

CT: [UI]

CHS: [UI] [REDACTED]

CT: Where's [UI].

CHS: No idea, but I'm assuming it's in the city.

CT: [REDACTED] [UI].

CHS: Yeah.

CT: Wait do you have to be in the city now or? What are you doing? Like what do you have to do right now?

CHS: Oh well I'm going to, if I'm going to, I was thinking [UI] do you want me to drop you off in the city or do you want to go?

CT: Well what's easier for you, because if it's easier for you, because you said you have to like pick your [REDACTED] up at six.

CHS: Yeah, 6:30. Just going to go home, let the [REDACTED] out.

CT: Yeah that's [UI] is it easier for you to [REDACTED] [REDACTED] or drop me off [UI].

CHS: It doesn't matter, it's either [UI] like fift-[REDACTED]
[REDACTED].

CT: Okay well [UI].

CT: [UI]

CHS: Oh she's very clean and that's--

CT: [UI]

CHS: Well why don't you reach out to her again?

CT: I think she's married.

CHS: You think she's married?

CT: [UI]

CHS: No shit.

CT: She's living with her parents now.

CHS: Oh is she?

CT: [UI] supportive and that's, those are the two most [UI].

CHS: See those things that you don't realize [REDACTED] that you have, there's a bunch of [REDACTED] that would have married you.

CT: [UI] because [UI] haven't found [UI] what do you think [UI].

CHS: Mm-hmm. Okay, everyone's looking for the one in a million, right?

CT: Because I thought my first love was my soul mate [UI] I was like 16, 17, 18.

CHS: There's seven billion people in the world so you have 7 billion options. Just saying.

CT: [UI] right now [UI] date again. Like I don't like--

CHS: Dating sucks.

CT: Oh that's, that's good. [UI]

CHS: [UI] it becomes very easy because they're used to one thing they just have to make couple of minor adjustments that's what [REDACTED] had with [REDACTED]

CT: [UI]

CHS: She came out [UI].

CT: [UI] like [UI] a [REDACTED].

CHS: In that little box.

CT: No not that [UI] the place before that. That was [UI] so everything was like, you know, I'm home, Netflix. Dinner--

CHS: [OV] Chill.

CT: --together, you know? And I just became like pulling out the same couple [REDACTED] restaurants where my friends owned in [REDACTED] It was kind of like that little, um, what's the word? When you do something continuously like a schedule [UI] you know what I'm talking about.

CHS: Routine.

CT: Routine. Exactly and I like that, now it's like, [UI] pick them up, I got to take them out to [UI].

CHS: I dont know, you like nice things, you like to go shopping.

CT: Of course I do, but I guess what you said get somebody who's out of a serious thing too who just wants to chill, you know, and not like a gold digger or something.

CHS: I date, I dated this pothead, you know [UI] you wouldn't have found her attractive--

CT: I wouldn't have?

CHS: Maybe? I don't know, she was a tall blonde girl.

CT: [UI]

CT: [UI] somebody like that [UI].

CHS: [UI] air on is fucking hurting my ear.

CT: Well you got to, you got to have some girl like that [UI] potheads. How old was she?

CHS: Uh, around [REDACTED].

CT: Dude. There's a whole other world out there people [UI] don't even know about in terms of what people are into now days. Like my uncle for example, the guy is 61, he just creeps on [UI] all day and he gets like 22 year olds like looking for sugar daddies.

CHS: [Chuckles]

CT: Dude, 22 year olds, 19 year olds going out with a 61 year old like licking his ass and shit.

CHS: That's disgusting as shit.

CT: These are people we [REDACTED] with basically. You just, we just don't know what's going on out there. It's nuts.

CHS: [Scoffs]

CT: One of the girls, like, she's like [REDACTED] I looked her up, she's like a [REDACTED]. If you looked at her in public you'd say nice looking blonde girl, nice friends, [REDACTED], then she's [UI] going out with my [REDACTED]. It's like [UI] right? Oh, speaking of that, remember that, um, that [REDACTED] girl that we used to have in [REDACTED] and then she went to [REDACTED] and did like some [REDACTED] masters or something? You know what I'm talking about?

CHS: [REDACTED] [PH]? No we never had her [REDACTED].

CHS: Oh man.

CT: What happened to them?

CHS: I think [REDACTED] got wifey'd up and [REDACTED] [REDACTED] she was already married, but--

CT: [REDACTED] was married?

CHS: She was married the whole time we [REDACTED].

CT: What?

CHS: Yeah.

CT: How old was she?

CHS: She was, uh, [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. Man she was, she was the epitome of--

CT: [UI]

CHS: --my love, like, I loved that girl but she was married, like--

CT: [UI] she was so amazing wasn't she?

CHS: Yeah. I also gave [REDACTED] on [REDACTED] I went to a protest with her downtown against [REDACTED]

CT: She was against [REDACTED]

CHS: Yeah.

CT: I thought she was for [REDACTED] actually--

CHS: No.

CT: --no, no, no. Because she was actually against the para-military [REDACTED] I remember. I don't know if she, that makes her for [REDACTED] but--

CHS: No anti-[REDACTED] those are the para-military.

CT: What, you don't talk to her anymore?

CHS: No I had, you know I, I have, I'm bound to reach out to her again see what she's up to. If she's divorced I'm after her ass.

CT: She's divorced?

CHS: Yeah I said if she's divorced.

CT: We have to call [REDACTED] up, he'll know.

CHS: And he just fucking text me, he's like what are you retired now?

CT: He said that to you?

CHS: Yeah.

CT: I'll add him on [REDACTED]

CT: [UI]

CHS: But I'm very serious about making money and I want to know how to fucking make some goddamn money over here.

CT: Well nine days from now, let's, we're going to sit down properly.

CHS: Why nine days why can't we just sit down properly now?

CT: Well because I'm brainstorming at, about what I told you about the people. But I need to see, I got to sit down and systematically write who I know, what they want, and how I can leverage that because if you know like government guys and ambassadors you should be making money, that's all I know because there's not one person I know who has those connections that isn't making fucking money. I just need some, well you put it in my brain that maybe that we could do something together with it. It's always nice to have a partner.

CHS: As long as you don't fuck me over.

CT: Have you ever had somebody fuck you over and [UI] partner like in a business?

CHS: Yeah.

CT: Really?

CHS: [REDACTED]. Never do business with [REDACTED] ever again.

CT: What happened?

CHS: Like he was just a shady motherfu- like we were [REDACTED] in [REDACTED]

CT: [OV] You were [REDACTED] [REDACTED]?

CHS: --yeah and I had, I put [REDACTED] of my own fucking money into this [REDACTED]

CT: Yeah.

CHS: And he goes and blows [REDACTED] on a fucking architect to draw out how our place is going to look, but no electricity, no plumbing, none of that shit, he just did an aesthetic architect to fucking draw out how he wants the place to look, [REDACTED] dollars. The, [REDACTED] is how much it's going to cost to get fucking license for this place, b-buy a whole bunch of like raggedy ass old chairs and shit and get the place running.

CT: Whoa.

CHS: This motherfucker spent [REDACTED] to make this place look cool on a fucking computer. Son of a bitch.

CT: What?

CHS: He was so stupid.

CT: Of his money?

CHS: Yeah.

CT: Or the companies money? Like the [UI]--

CHS: Well he got, he got--

CT: --money put together?

CHS: Yeah. Son of a bitch. Can't understand, can't stand the sight of him.

CT: So then what happened, you spend [REDACTED] you got the plans so what happened?

CHS: We didn't have any more money left.

CT: Well I'm sure he's [UI].

CHS: He's like, he wants, he wants [REDACTED] that he put in there. I'm like I just have [REDACTED] to get this place up and running. You have [REDACTED] here's my plan, here's how, here's the roadmap to getting this place open we have month deposit sink all this other shit ready to go, I had bought all, all this shit from this, uh, cl- this guy, guy he buys out the, like restaurants that are closing, he'll buy out like their sinks and all this other shit and he has, stacks them in a warehouse and you go and pick whatever the hell you want--

CT: Oh yeah?

CHS: --and he gives them to you for [REDACTED] on the dollar.

CT: Whoa. Did you have all the [REDACTED] ready?

CHS: No, [REDACTED] cost [REDACTED] bucks. We had, I don't know, I had about [REDACTED] in my garage, but--

CT: [UI]

CHS: --money we'd make some--

CT: How is [REDACTED] [PH] still open 10 years later?

CHS: Because all these shady ass [REDACTED] in there going to play poker and hand and all this other shit.

CT: Is that what they do?

CHS: It's all they do, man. They sit there and talk shit all these taxi, taxi drivers with all their wives and families back home.

CT: What? Yeah, but I don't ever see them exchanging money they're just like there playing cards, there's no money.

CHS: Maybe they pay for the, play for the bill, I don't know what the fuck [UI].

CT: You know I've never seen a cop walk, walk into that place.

CHS: I've always seen cops walking into that place.

CT: Really.

CHS: When I was in high school, all the time.

CT: They must have made an arrangement back in the [UI].

CHS: There's a police station right next door to them.

CT: Well I guarantee you they have an arrangement with [UI] because I always see underage people in there, obviously the people in there are all legal working.

CHS: Yeah and now--

CHS: Yeah.

CT: --and like Iraq. Those are not citizens so they have an arrangement I think.

CHS: Well you go into any fucking restaurant in America, half the people that work there especially in the kitchen aren't fucking legal.

CT: Do you go to [REDACTED] anymore?

CHS: No. I'm over [REDACTED], man. I don't like that shit.

CT: You're over it, huh?

CHS: It's so, it's so, uh, I don't know, I'm not relaxed by it, people get relaxed by it.

CT: I get relaxed by it.

CHS: I just [REDACTED] every once in a while.

CT: [REDACTED] don't relax me, [REDACTED] does. But apparently [REDACTED] is really bad for you.

CHS: Yeah it's like [REDACTED].

CT: [UI]

CHS: Yeah it's horrible dude. There's [UI] I don't know why people aren't using it.

CT: [UI] like [REDACTED] bucks [UI].

CHS: Psh. Fuck it used to be [REDACTED] dollars.

CT: [UI] those girls [UI] she's like a, doing something like, uhm, I think he's [REDACTED] the owner.

CHS: Yeah. No I thought he was [REDACTED] maybe they, he sold it. Oh.

CT: No he's [REDACTED]. Uh, [REDACTED] [PH], [UI]--

CHS: When he comes back from [REDACTED], he'll definitely [UI]--

CT: What's he doing over there?

CHS: He's visiting his [REDACTED] His [REDACTED] and--

CT: [OV] I thought you said he [REDACTED]

CHS: [REDACTED]

CT: He [REDACTED]

CHS: Yeah. He [REDACTED]. [Laughs]

CT: Wait a minute. How'd he get [REDACTED]

CHS: She went, eh, she left the house and, uh, she went back to [REDACTED]

CT: What happened though?

CHS: I don't know. She actually called his mom a bitch right in front of him.

[Driving sounds]

CHS: And that was--

CT: [OV] Get the hell out of here.

CHS: --it, like, the straw the broke the camel's back. She thought she was this privileged little bitch that came from fucking, uh, [REDACTED]. She, she didn't think she was privileged. She grew up in a fucking farm and she came here and she start, like.. [REDACTED]

CT: Yeah.

CHS: And he's super nice and super sweet.

CT: I love [REDACTED] [PH].

CHS: And, like, she came here and she thought she was privileged, [REDACTED], she's better than the, everybody that she came from like--

CT: Are you serious?

CHS: Oh, yeah.

CT: Did you meet her?

CHS: Yeah. I couldn't stand her.

CT: Was she pretty at least, or no?

CHS: She was all right. She was very petite.

CT: So, what happened?

[Rustling]

[Water sounds]

CHS: He's just so, she just called mom a bitch and that just broke--the straw that broke the camel's back.

CT: And they were all living together?

CHS: Uh-hmm. And she, apparently she didn't cook well either. [Laughs]

CT: Oh my gosh.

CHS: The fuck's going on at [REDACTED]? Oh, parking for the [REDACTED] game?

CT: [OV] How long were they [REDACTED]

CHS: Uhm, [REDACTED].

CT: And then she just said I'm going back to [REDACTED]?

CHS: [REDACTED]. [Laughs]

CT: And then she said [REDACTED] [REDACTED], she told him.

CHS: Yep.

[Rustling]

CT: Hmm, wow man. It must have been really bad for her to say [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[Rustling]

[Driving sounds]

CT: I've never heard of anything like that in my life.

CHS: That's--when I went to, when I went to some of the [REDACTED]
I was a little disgusted.

CT: Why?

CHS: Like walking through these neighborhoods and half these people didn't even [REDACTED], they were all from fucking [REDACTED]

CT: Get out of here.

CHS: Dude, half of fucking [REDACTED]. They, you just give them free, in like the-in the [REDACTED]. Like, you know, [REDACTED], outside of [REDACTED] there's a bunch of [REDACTED].

[Rustling]

CT: Hmm.

CHS: You didn't see any while you were living out there?

CT: Yeah, I don't know, there's [REDACTED] [UI]--

CHS: [OV] Psh.

CT: --they all look [REDACTED]

CHS: Yeah.

[Chiming sound]

CHS: Ah.

[Phone notification]

CHS: You think Russia's playing a big game in this election?

CT: No.

CHS: Why not?

CT: Why would they?

CHS: Don't you think they have special interests?

CT: Something like that.

[Banging sound]

CT: I don't think so. That's all bullshit. No one knows who's hacking--

CHS: You don't think that they, that they hacked the, the DNC? Who hacked the fucking DNC then?

CT: Could be the Chinese, could be the Iranians, it could be some Bernie, uh, supporters. Could be --

[Phone notification]

CT: --Anonymous.

CHS: Bernie supports, I don't think fucking Bernie supporters would have done that.

CT: Dude, the Russia doesn't have any interest in it anyways. I mean...

CHS: Do you think they have interest in Trump?

CT: They, dude, no one knows how a president's going to govern anyway. You don't just say, oh I like--

CHS: [OV] He is very limited in to what he can do anyways so like [laughs]...

CT: I mean, the r-the Congress is very hostile with Russia anyways, so... I don't know, I don't know. And even Putin said it himself [UI].

[Rustling]

CT: It's all, it's like conspiracy theories.

CHS: Can't believe you're on the fucking front page of that uh, Russian--

CT: [OV] I'll show you [UI]--

CHS: I don't know, I feel like there's some heavy Trump supporters out there that kind of want to rig this fucking election in Trump's favor and then at the same time, I don't know--

CT: Dude, you, you...there is no rigging in his favor. I mean, because, what...he has [UI]--

CHS: [OV] He's such a damaged man.

CT: Because, everything is public nowadays. From videos and, you can't be private anymore. You know? How many interviews has he given over the years? He was in the headlines, the tabloids in New York for 30 years dude. You know what I'm saying? So they did all the investigation on him.

[Phone notification]

CT: Clinton is just--

[Rustling]

CT: --undergoing the same struggle, you know? Except for hers was more private because it was emails. You see what I'm saying?

CHS: You don't think anyone from the Trump campaign hacked her--

CT: [OV] No--

CHS: --email.

CT: --no, no, nope.

CHS: You don't think anyone from the Trump campaign had anything to do with fucking over the, at the DNC?

CT: No.

CHS: Really?

CT: No. I know that for a fact.

CHS: How do you know that for a fact?

CT: 'Cause I go, I've been working with them for the last nine months. That's [UI]. And all of this stuff has been happening, what, the last four months?

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

Recording: CCR_001.wav & CCR_002.wav

CHS: But you don't think anyone would have done it, like under, undercover or anything like that?

CT: No, I don't think so. And you know what's interesting? A guy, when I was in [REDACTED] the guy was, I did this [REDACTED] for, for [REDACTED], he's a [REDACTED] at [REDACTED].

CHS: Hm-hmm.

CT: And he was like a big advisor to like [REDACTED]. He asked me that same question. And he actually was probably like, going in and tell the CIA or something if I'd have told him something else. I assume that's why he was asking. And I told him, absolutely not. There's absolutely no reason...First of all, it's illegal, you know, to do that shit.

CHS: Yeah, but--

CT: [OV] No one would fucking put their life--

[Driving sounds]

[Rustling]

CT: --at risk of going to jail for the next 50 years to hack some bullshit that may mean nothing. And as, and as you saw what happened, this whole like...you saw what happened with the FBI [REDACTED] right?

CHS: No, what happened?

CT: Well, they're rein-reinstating the investigation.

[Rustling]

CHS: In--

CT: Into the Clinton emails. Because Anthony Weiner--

CHS: Yeah.

CT: --remember that guy that [UI]--

CHS: [OV] His ex, is it his ex-wife or are they just separated?

CT: They just separated. He was apparently like--

[Rustling]

SECRET//NOFORN

CT: --involved in like child porn or something and some-something like that. And the emails that they found, or right now that they are investigating, were on [REDACTED] [PH] computer that she shared with him.

[Phone notification]

CT: So she was sending like classified material on the same computer that he was--

CHS: Doing child porn with.

CT: Yeah.

CHS: He's fucking [UI].

CT: So the FBI now is coming--

CHS: [OV] You're going to tell me where to go, right?

CT: Oh sure, sure, sure, sure. Oh, we're already here?

CHS: Yeah, we're not too, uh, remember that, that whole traffic area that we-we were--

CT: [OV] Yeah.

CHS: --stopped at on [REDACTED]? I'm like three blocks from there.

[Phone notification]

[Rustling]

[Music in background]

CHS: So they're reopening the investigation?

CT: Yeah because...because uh, they found emails that [REDACTED], you know, her aide--

CHS: Yeah.

CT: --was sending classified material from that guy's computer while he was th--I don't know man. She may have sunk him. Sunk her. Oh dude, if you like Thai food...

CHS: Uh, [REDACTED]?

CT: No, this place right here. It's like a hidden gem.

CHS: I'll go. We should do that some time.

CT: Just let me know.

CHS: You going to [REDACTED] on [REDACTED]

CT: Yeah, just for like, till [REDACTED] night though. I'm supposed to go to this breakfast on [REDACTED] morning. I might not want to go [UI].

CHS: [REDACTED]

CT: Yeah. The place is the best. Uh, left at the next light.

CHS: Left?

CT: Yeah.

[Driving sounds]

CHS: With all this traffic.

[Rustling]

CHS: So you don't think anyone would have risked anything to--

CT: No, there, there, that'd be suicide dude.

CHS: Why would that be suicide? What do you, do you think it's suicide for--

CT: [OV] Left here.

CHS: --Clinton or do you think it's suicide for--

CT: [OV] It, what, and where I'm saying [UI]--

CHS: --for that--

CT: --oh this is a great sushi place--

CT: It's all you can eat anything. Are you hungry, you want to go eat there?

CHS: No. [Sighs] We just ate some fucking gyros.

CT: [Laughs] First of all, it's illegal, right? To do that. So no one--

CHS: [OV] Yeah, obviously.

CT: --in their right mind would uh--

CHS: [OV] What if, okay, if--

CT: If you, first of all, if you taped somebody without them knowing, that, just taping it's illegal--

CHS: Right.

CT: --you get a felony.

CHS: Sure.

CT: So, that's why like, you know that video that was released by the news for Trump?

CHS: Hm-hmm.

CT: They're going to get sued up the ass once he--the election's over. His lawyers are already on that so. Like, for example, if you're sitting at a table, right, and you're filming somebody--

CHS: So what happens when someone, uh, records, uh, something like, like [REDACTED] [PH]?

CT: What do you mean?

CHS: They didn't have consent to film [REDACTED] or the police.

CT: No, no, no, no, no. That's filming something public. I'm talking about a private conversation. That's different. Like, I could be filming this guy walking right now and it's legal because he's in a public space. That's completely legal. But when you're in a private setting with somebody and that person is filming you and then--

SECRET//NOFORN

CHS: [OV] Of course, yeah.

CT: It's illegal, you know. So, ABC, what they did was illegal. When the New York Times released his tax returns that was also illegal.

CHS: It was?

CT: Illegal, yeah. I-I saw the, uh, the [UI]--

CHS: [OV] Keep going straight?

CT: Yeah.

CHS: You live in the ghetto, man.

CT: No shit.

CHS: [Laughs]

CT: And uhm--

CHS: What--say, is, do you think maybe Russia would have done it?

CT: Right here.

CHS: And, uhm, because they could get away with it?

CT: Any foreign government--

CHS: [OV] They can get away with it.

CT: --whoever, they can--

CHS: [OV] Even the Chinese can get away with it.

CT: Yeah. Yeah, any foreign government.

CHS: I don't know. I think there, I think there's something fishy with fucking Russia.

CT: You think so?

SECRET//NOFORN

File: [REDACTED]

Recording: CCR_001.wav & CCR_002.wav

CHS: Yeah. I think they're all wanting to fucking, they want everything in their interest. Of course, who, which government doesn't? We want everything in our interest.

CT: Right.

CHS: But I think though--

CT: [OV] I think--

CHS: --there is a struggle that Russia doesn't realize that they're the under power. Like [laughs] they want to look like a superpower but they're not.

CT: Well, d-no, they're a super--they're a little power. But it's separate from their weapons [UI] that's what makes them a big power. [UI].

CHS: She is hot.

CT: She's hot. And how is she with a dodo bird like that?

CHS: [Laughs] He does look like a dodo bird.

CT: Right?

[Driving sounds]

CHS: I went to [REDACTED] there, like, every time you open--

CT: [OV] Oh, you went to [REDACTED]

CHS: Yeah. They open the doors in a taxi, they open it for you because they have a lever or something--

CT: [OV] How [UI]--

CHS: --and they go, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [PH] I'm like, bitch, you call me [REDACTED]

CT: [REDACTED]

CHS: [Laughs]

CT: What does [REDACTED] [PH] mean?

CHS: I have no idea.

CT: [OV] How [UI]--

CHS: --[REDACTED].

CT: That's where I want to go man, I want to go--

CHS: [OV] It's fun.

CT: --yeah.

CHS: Let's go to Russia and [REDACTED] Fuck [REDACTED] I don't want to go--

CT: [OV] Yeah, alright.

CHS: --to fucking [REDACTED]

CT: That's what I'd like to do actually. Those are the, the only three countries I'm really interested in going to; [REDACTED] to Russian, and... How was the food there by the way?

CHS: In [REDACTED]

CT: Yeah.

CHS: Eh, you have to find your--

CT: [OV] [REDACTED] [UI]--

CHS: --good places.

CT: --wasn't that good, the sushi?

CHS: I-I found some good sushi out there, but I mean, I've honestly have had better here in America.

CT: No way.

CHS: Yeah.

CT: Yeah, a left. Turn in where that white car is [UI].

CHS: They make uh, they'll eat some raw fish barely cleaned, throw it on your plate--

CT: [UI]

CHS: Great, it's great. It's great. The fucking fish is just doing this and they go [makes chopping sound]--

CT: Oh.

CHS: --they cut that motherfucker's head off, which is great.

CT: [UI]. Wow.

CHS: Mercedes.

[Driving sounds]

CHS: Is that--

CT: [OV] [UI]--

CHS: --when are you driving?

CT: Uh?

CHS: When are you--

CT: [OV] I take an Uber everywhere.

CHS: --going to start driving?

CT: I-I could drive that but I-I don't, I take Uber.
