UNITED STATES
FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE SURVEILLANCE COURT
WASHINGTON, D.C.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER

On [REDACTED] the Court issued orders granting the surveillance authorities requested by the government in the above-captioned docket. Those orders and authorities [REDACTED]

Also on [REDACTED] the Court issued a Memorandum Opinion explaining the basis for the Court's finding jurisdiction to grant the portion of the requested authorities that pertain to electronic surveillance under [REDACTED]

As explained in that Memorandum Opinion, operational concerns that were first communicated to the Court on [REDACTED] militated in favor of an immediate ruling on the application. While the Court was able to find jurisdiction on the record then before it, a more fully developed factual record would assist the Court in considering any application to renew the authorities granted in this docket or applications involving other [REDACTED] that the government may propose to subject to surveillance under [REDACTED]

Accordingly, the Government is ordered to submit a report, under oath and no later than [REDACTED]

This report shall include:
